

Are you OK?

Written & Illustrated by Guru Sriman

Dedicated to Calvin

It was a glorious sunny day and the first day of school for Henry and Sam.

The two friends woke up quickly like a cheetah as they were so excited to go to school.

They were so excited to go to school that, they were ready in five minutes.

As they were boarding the bus together, they were talking happily and were curious about how the class and teachers are going to be.

When they reached the school, they ran into their classroom
and took a place.

They played and studied cheerfully.

$$2 + 2 = 4$$

After the class they planned to go out and have some fun in the city park BUT...

Suddenly Sam got pulled by two girls and they started bullying her.

They were telling awful words to her.

!@&$#*%?.....!

#!$%*?...!

Then Henry realized that they were the same bullies from last year and went to help Sam.

After helping her he asked her
"Are you OK?"

Are you Ok?

She hugged him tightly and said
"Yes, Thank You."

Yes! Thank you

Henry gave her a tissue to wipe her tears off.

Later, they both went to the city park and had a lot of fun.

The End

About the author

I'm Guru Sriman, 12 years young from India.

There are so many problems that people face in terms of how they treat each other which inspired me to write this book, in the hope that people will start changing the way they act.

My dream for the future is to be a scientist and bring a positive impact in the world.

Are you OK?

Tells you the story about Sam who get's bullied and how Henry came to her rescue & cheers her up after the situation ended.
