

GIRLS CAN DO ANYTHING

AYSHA SHAFI

DEDICATED TO MY SCHOOL TEACHERS AND MY FELLOW PEOPLE OF THE WORLD.
MY PARENTS FOR ALWAYS SUPPORTING ME.

Once Upon a time there was a girl named Darwina. She was 17 years old.
She lived in a small village in Brazil.

She wanted to be a bike rider and travel to southern Asia and climb Mount Everest and be the first person in her town to climb the mountain.

the villagers and her parents disagreed with the idea and told that only boys can accomplish this sort of things and girls were supposed to sit in the house and do chores such as cleaning and cooking but Darwina wanted to prove them wrong and show them that girls can do anything as boys.

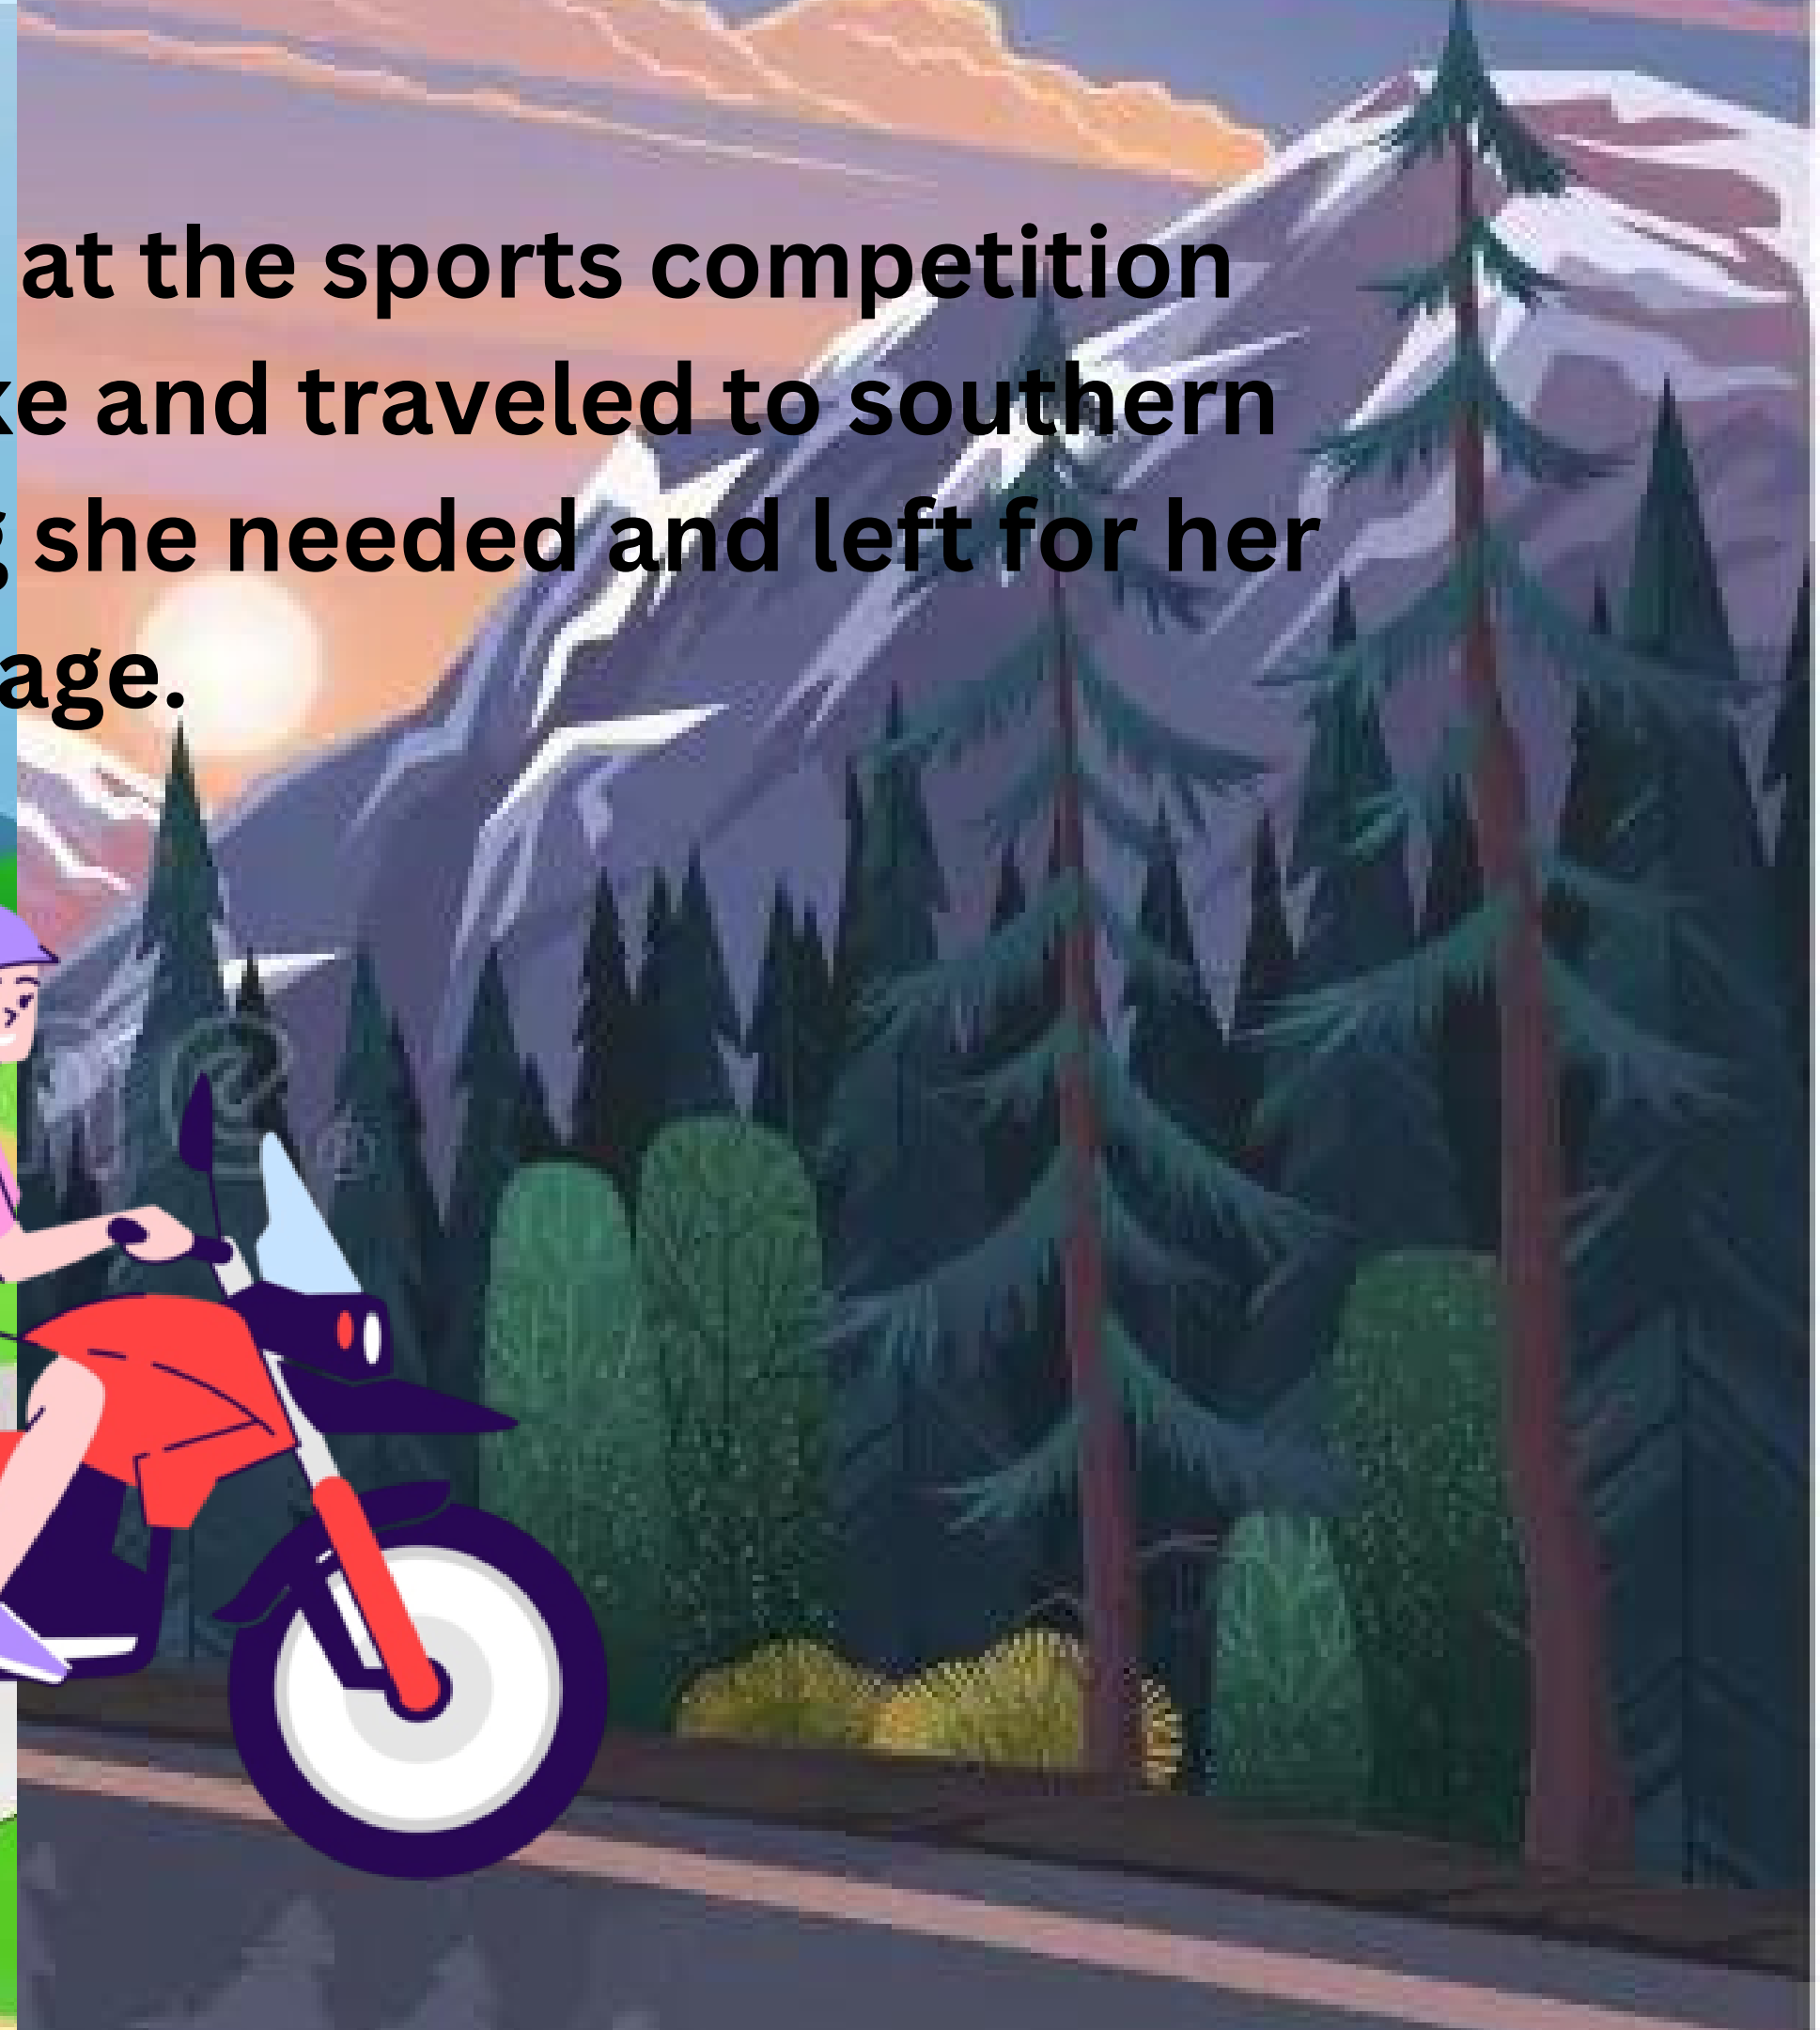

One day there was a sports competition in Darwina's village

Darwina wasn't allowed to participate because Darwina always confronted her villagers and her parents.

When everyone was busy at the sports competition Darwina took her dad's bike and traveled to southern Asia she packed everything she needed and left for her voyage.

she decided climb smaller mountains first when she reached a mountain she climbed it then she climbed mountains after mountains until she thought she was ready to climb Mount Everest the people in her village didn't care about Darwina's absence Darwina climbed Mount Everest after two months.

When she reached the peak, she met some news reporters, and she told them her story

When the news reporters uploaded the story online, the news reached Darwina's village. The villagers did not recognize Darwina, but they wanted to meet this girl.

Darwina became famous and rich. Then she thought about traveling worldwide on her bike.

She started her journey with some news reporters interviewing her, and five years later she traveled across the world, visiting 195 countries and having 74 houses in 74 different countries.

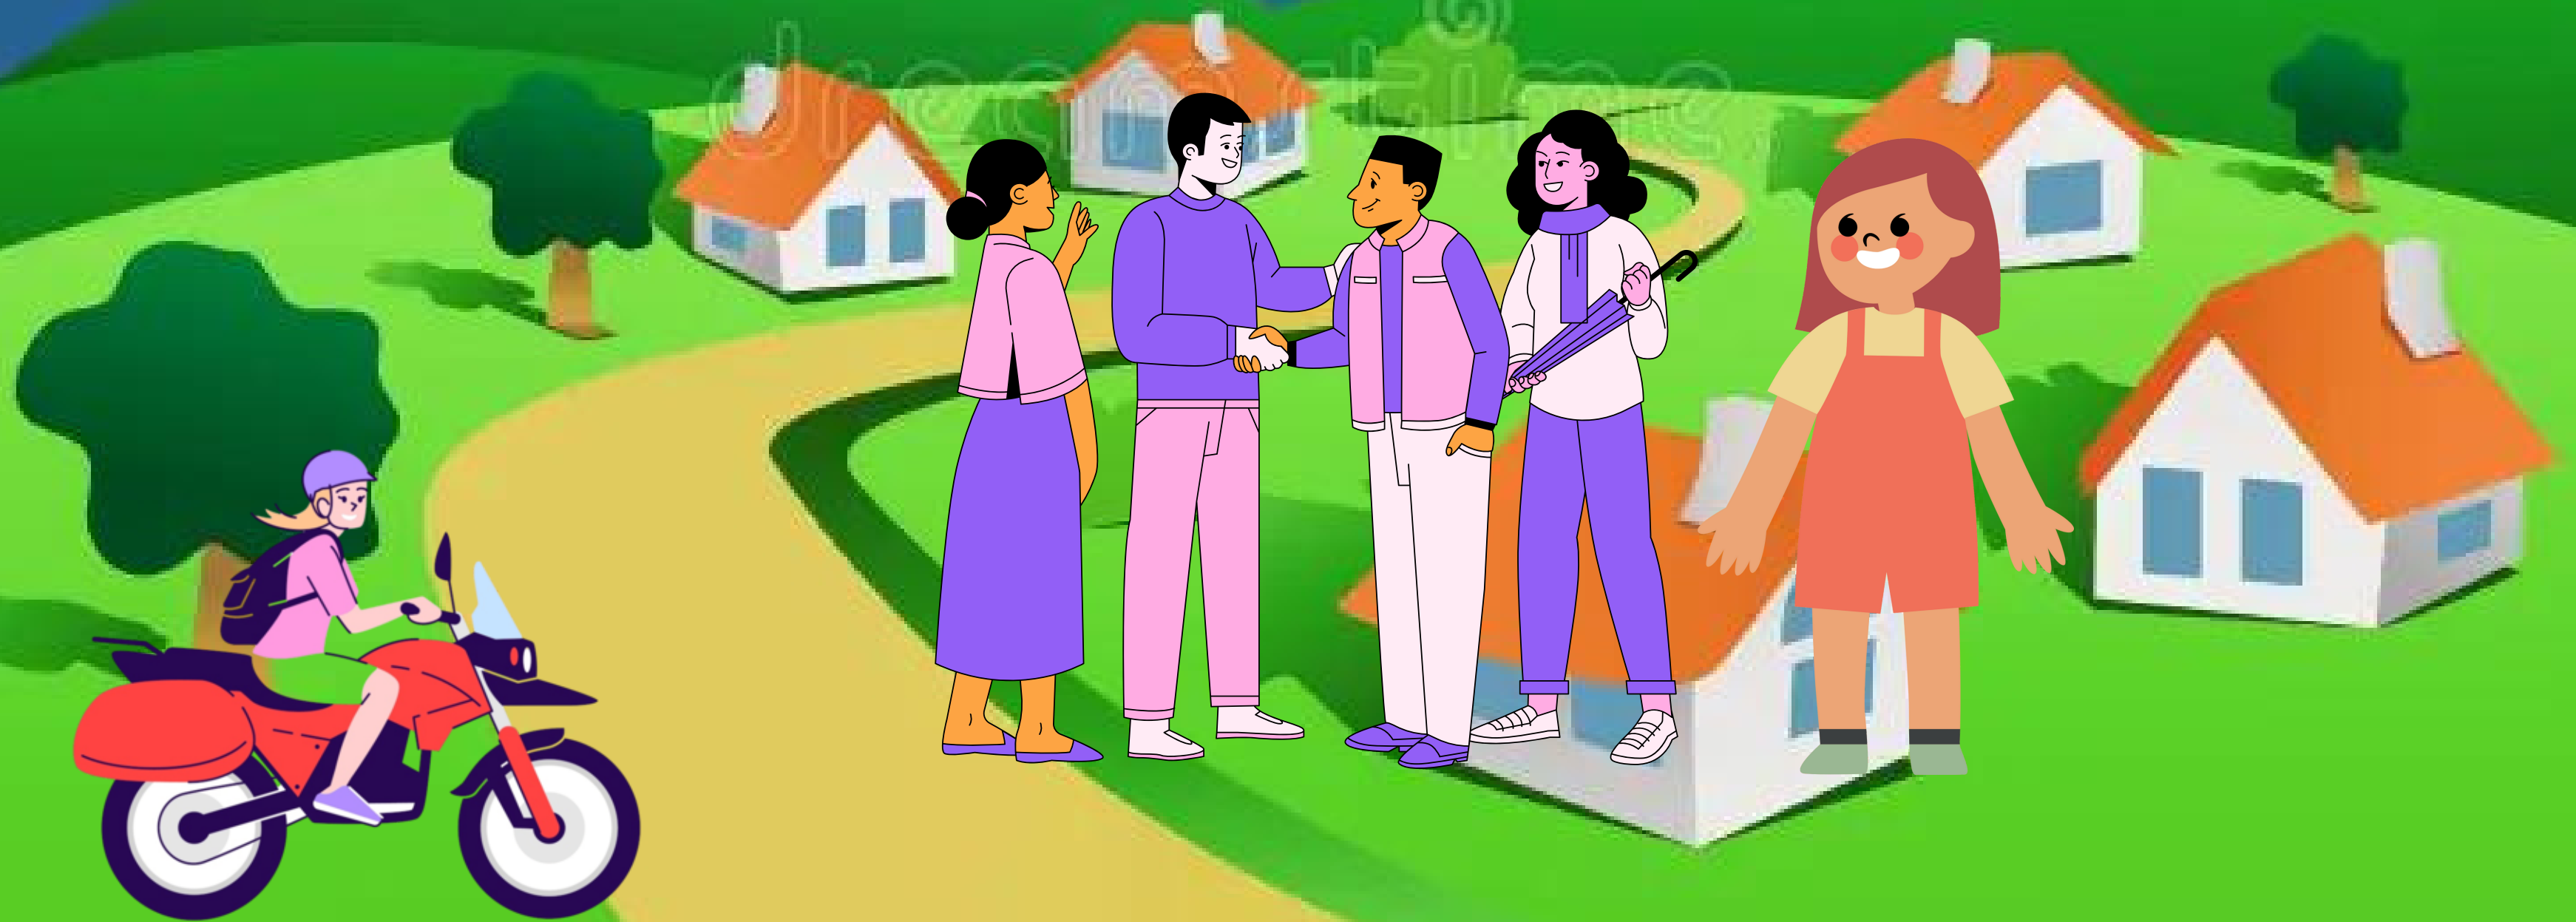

The news that a female traveled across the world on a bike became famous, and the news reached the village where Darwina used to live, and now the villagers wanted to meet this girl so badly.

One day she thought about visiting her old village, but back in the village everybody completely forgot about Darwina.

When she reached her town, everyone was amazed everybody to see Darwina and apologized to her for their beliefs about girls.

She became an inspiration to the world.

Moral: Girls can do anything; never give up.

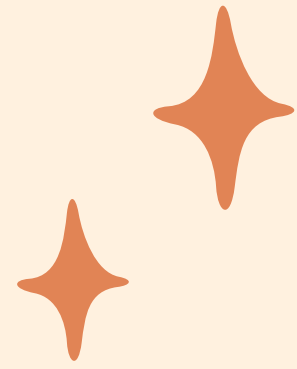

ABOUT AUTHOR

My name Aysha Shafi I am 11-year-old born on 2012 November 8. My nationality is India I am now living in Dubai as a resident with my family and I am currently in 5th grade studying in New Indian Model School Dubai I have 2 elder brothers along with a little sister. There are so many girls in the world that dont have freedom to do anything. I published this book and made money to help girls.

I want this world to be a fair and gender equality world int the future.

Darwina is a 17-year-old girl that wants to be a bike rider and climb Mount Everest but her parents disagree with the idea she took her dad`s bike and reached and climbed mount everest and travels to all 195 countries.

