

How School Works

By Josh B

To my Bffs Lachie, Luka, Cooper and Ellie

One morning in the Wingleewop neighborhood there was a bright soul named Josh.

He was so happy to be going to school, he hopped out of his bed with joy and opened the door.

Josh RAN down stairs and grabbed his bag.

He left the house saying, "Bye mum" and walked down the street.

Josh ran to school and entered inside. While admiring his new school he found his classroom 3482. Josh went in and found so many children.

He was so excited to meet new friends!

“Hello there,” a boy said sitting beside Josh. “Hello, my name is Josh, what is yours?” Josh asked with a big grin.

“My name is Lachlan, want to play together?” asked Lachlan. “Sure!” Josh said.

While Josh was making lots of friends, Josh noticed there was a big, scary and strong Year two kid speaking to another child and said, "Give me your lunch money, NOW!" he shouted to the kid. The boy was so afraid he nearly cried.

Well Josh knew how people could be a little grumpy and disappointed when not spending a lot of time with your parents but you shouldn't be mean to other kids to get your way,

"Hi big kid, umm are you ok?" Josh said with a smile but that's when the tough kid looked at Josh.

Josh never knew what a bully was, if he knew he would have thought it was a bull boy but Josh was wrong.

Lachlan saw in the distance what was happening and Lachlan shouted to Josh, “Don’t Josh, do not talk with him!”
Lachlan was really worried now because of what happened to the last person who wanted to talk with the bully. Maybe he got destroyed by rockets from the bully,

Maybe the bully owned the big bad wolf and ate him, maybe he moved schools... but that could have not happened.

Lachie yelled, "run Josh run!" Josh ran straight away with Lachie by his side. They thought that he must not be fast but Fred was just getting started. Lachie pulled Josh to the left hallway and made a big screeching noise. Josh saw three doors ahead and quickly chose one of them, "Lachie lets pick the door on the left, that will help us confuse him on which door we chose."

Josh and Lachie raced into a secure room where the bully Fred, wouldn't catch them. They look around and find 5 new kids they have never seen at the school." Umm who are you kids?" Josh said nervously. One replied by saying, "My name is Luke, these kids are Bob, Scarlet, Siena and Jakeb."

"Ok? Well nice to meet you five." "Say have you got any idea what me and Lachlan can do to face that bully?" Josh asked Luke. "The bullies name is Fred but I am sorry I have got no clue what to do to help you two. I can get my buddies and me to help distract him," Luke said. "Sure that would be helpful," Josh said.

"Ok, my buddies can...hmm...go help by asking questions to Fred the bully. I can go with you, Josh and Lachlan and we will go and run to the teacher," Luke said in a cool like accent.

"Yes, ok but will your friends distract him for long?" Josh asked. "I am not sure," said Luke before Fred busted the door down. "NOW!"

Josh, Lachlan and Luke ran as fast as they could past Fred.
“Hey come back here!” Fred yelled while running after Lachlan, Josh and Luke.

“Oh no, the buddies can't stop him... PLAN B! Run down the shortcut way to the teachers office...” Luke said.

Their shoes made a screeching sound while turning corners. The sounds of huffing and puffing were heard by each other. They reached the door and quickly entered in the classroom. “Teacher! We need help”.

“What’s the problem boys?” Mrs K asked.

“There is a boy called Fred that is trying to destroy us! Can you please help me and Josh fix the problem?” Lachie said terrified “Ok, I can help you, just let me talk with Fred and we can sort everything out,” Mrs K said in a charming voice.

Mrs K walked over to Fred on the other side of the door and said, “Now Fred, can you please tell me whats wrong? These two boys have been worried that you are going to hurt them.”
“Well, I just want some friends, no one would let me play with them...”
Fred said sobbing.

Josh and Lachie peaked their heads out of the door and asked Fred, “We can be your friend, why did you never ask?” “I thought by scaring people would make them respect me, what did I do wrong?” Fred asked Lachie and Josh.

“Well being kind and sharing your love with them will create friendship, thats how me and Josh are BFFs” Lachie said to Fred. “I get it now, thank you for teaching me how to make friends. Lachie and Josh how can I repay you?” Fred asked. “Just don’t bully anymore people.” Luke ran down the hallway with his buddies and saw Fred in front of him, “ Friend!” Fred said with a smile while Luke was blushing. The two kids Lachie and Josh had a big happy year ahead.

GOOD VIBES

My name is Josh and I am 11 years old. I come from Australia and want to write a book about what creates peace in school. I have experienced it and would like to share how to do this.

My dreams are to have a peaceful world with nothing except kindness, love, generosity and peace, School is a place to learn what to do and should be a place for kindness and love.

I have lots of friends from Primary school, so many, in fact lots of them are Bff's. What we all normally do is play online games with each other, go around to each others houses and do what friends do. I hope you enjoy my book.

THIS BOOK IS ABOUT A BOY CALLED JOSH TRYING TO MAKE FRIENDS AND BUDDIES BUT HE STUMBLES ONTO FRED THE BIG BAD BULLY. CAN JOSH STOP FRED'S EVIL
PLANS TO BREAK THE SCHOOL FRIENDSHIPS?
