

IMAGINE

By Susannah

I dedicate this book to whoever
uses their imagination in their life.

It was a sunny morning and Jess was playing in the garden with her friend Nicky. They were playing with their toys, Nicky had brought over her doll and Jess had brought out her doll. Just then they heard a familiar voice, “Nicky, time to go!” the voice called.

It was Jess’s mum.

“Awww, I have to go.” Nicky sighed.

"Nicky time to go!"

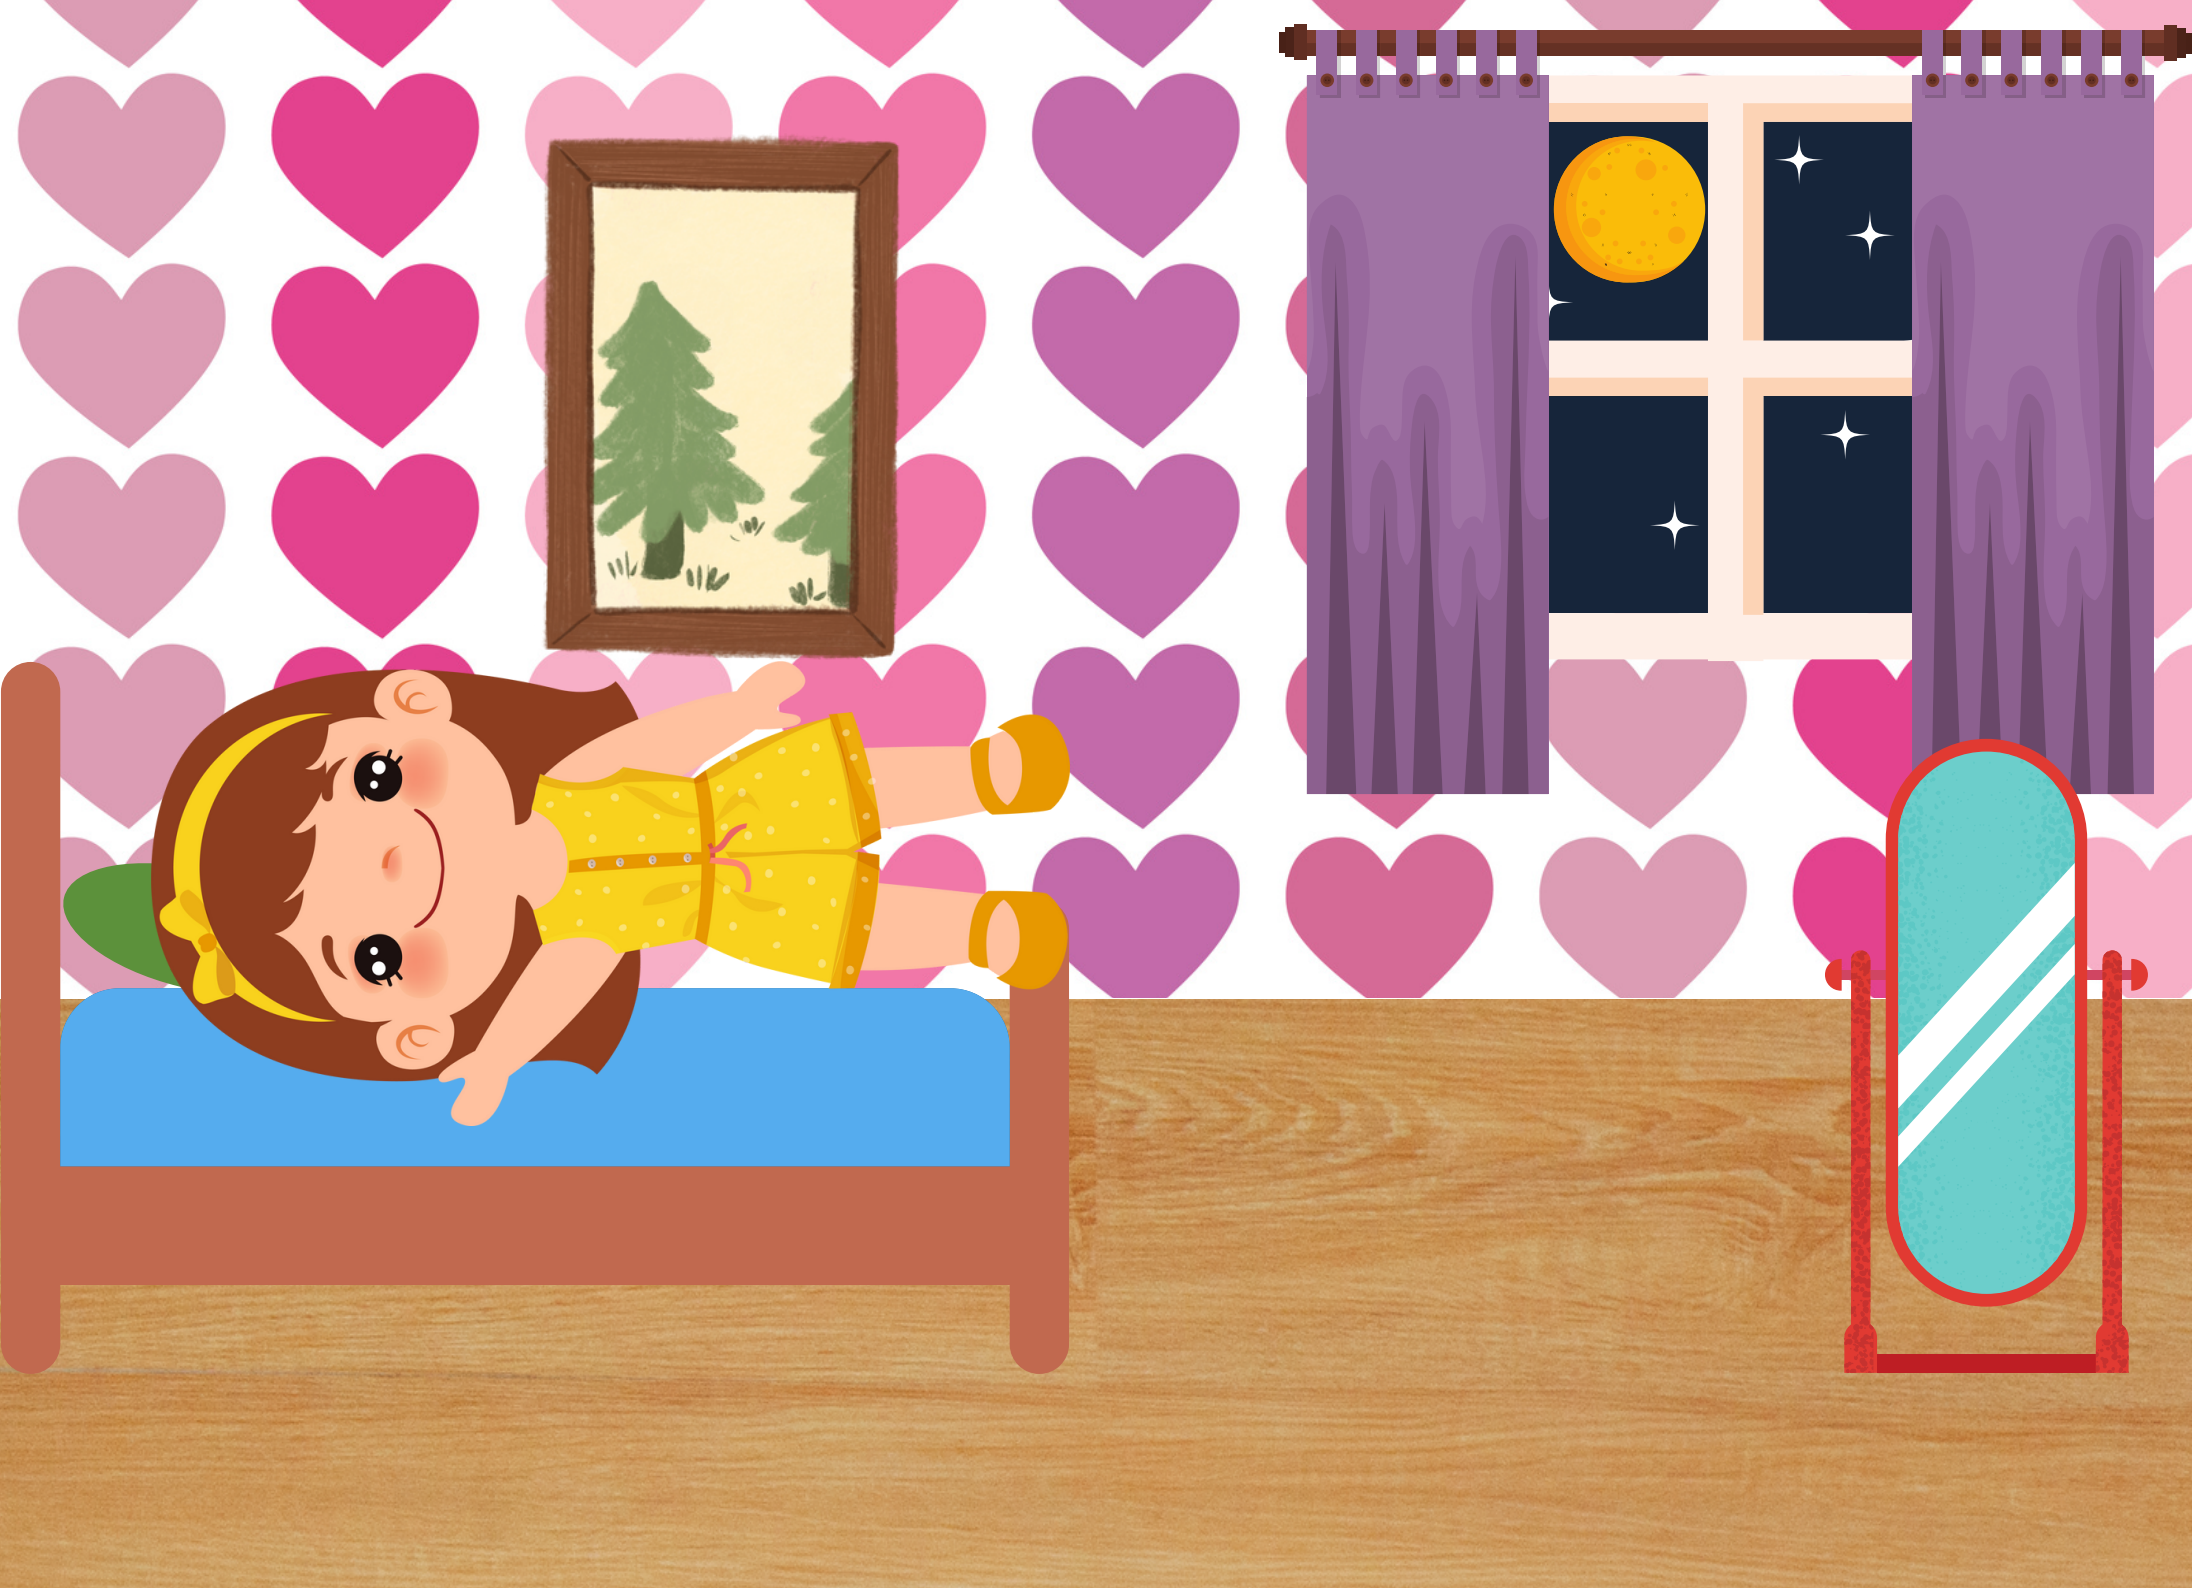

After Nicky went home Jess noticed something, a hair tie, Jess picked up the hair tie, she could see some black writing but she couldn't quite read it. "Jess, dinnertime!" called Jess's mum. So Jess ran inside for dinner.

"Jess, dinner time!"

That night after dinner Jess couldn't stop thinking about the hair tie. She decided to go to sleep because it was nearly 9:00pm.

(she could also hear her brother snoring like a bear.)

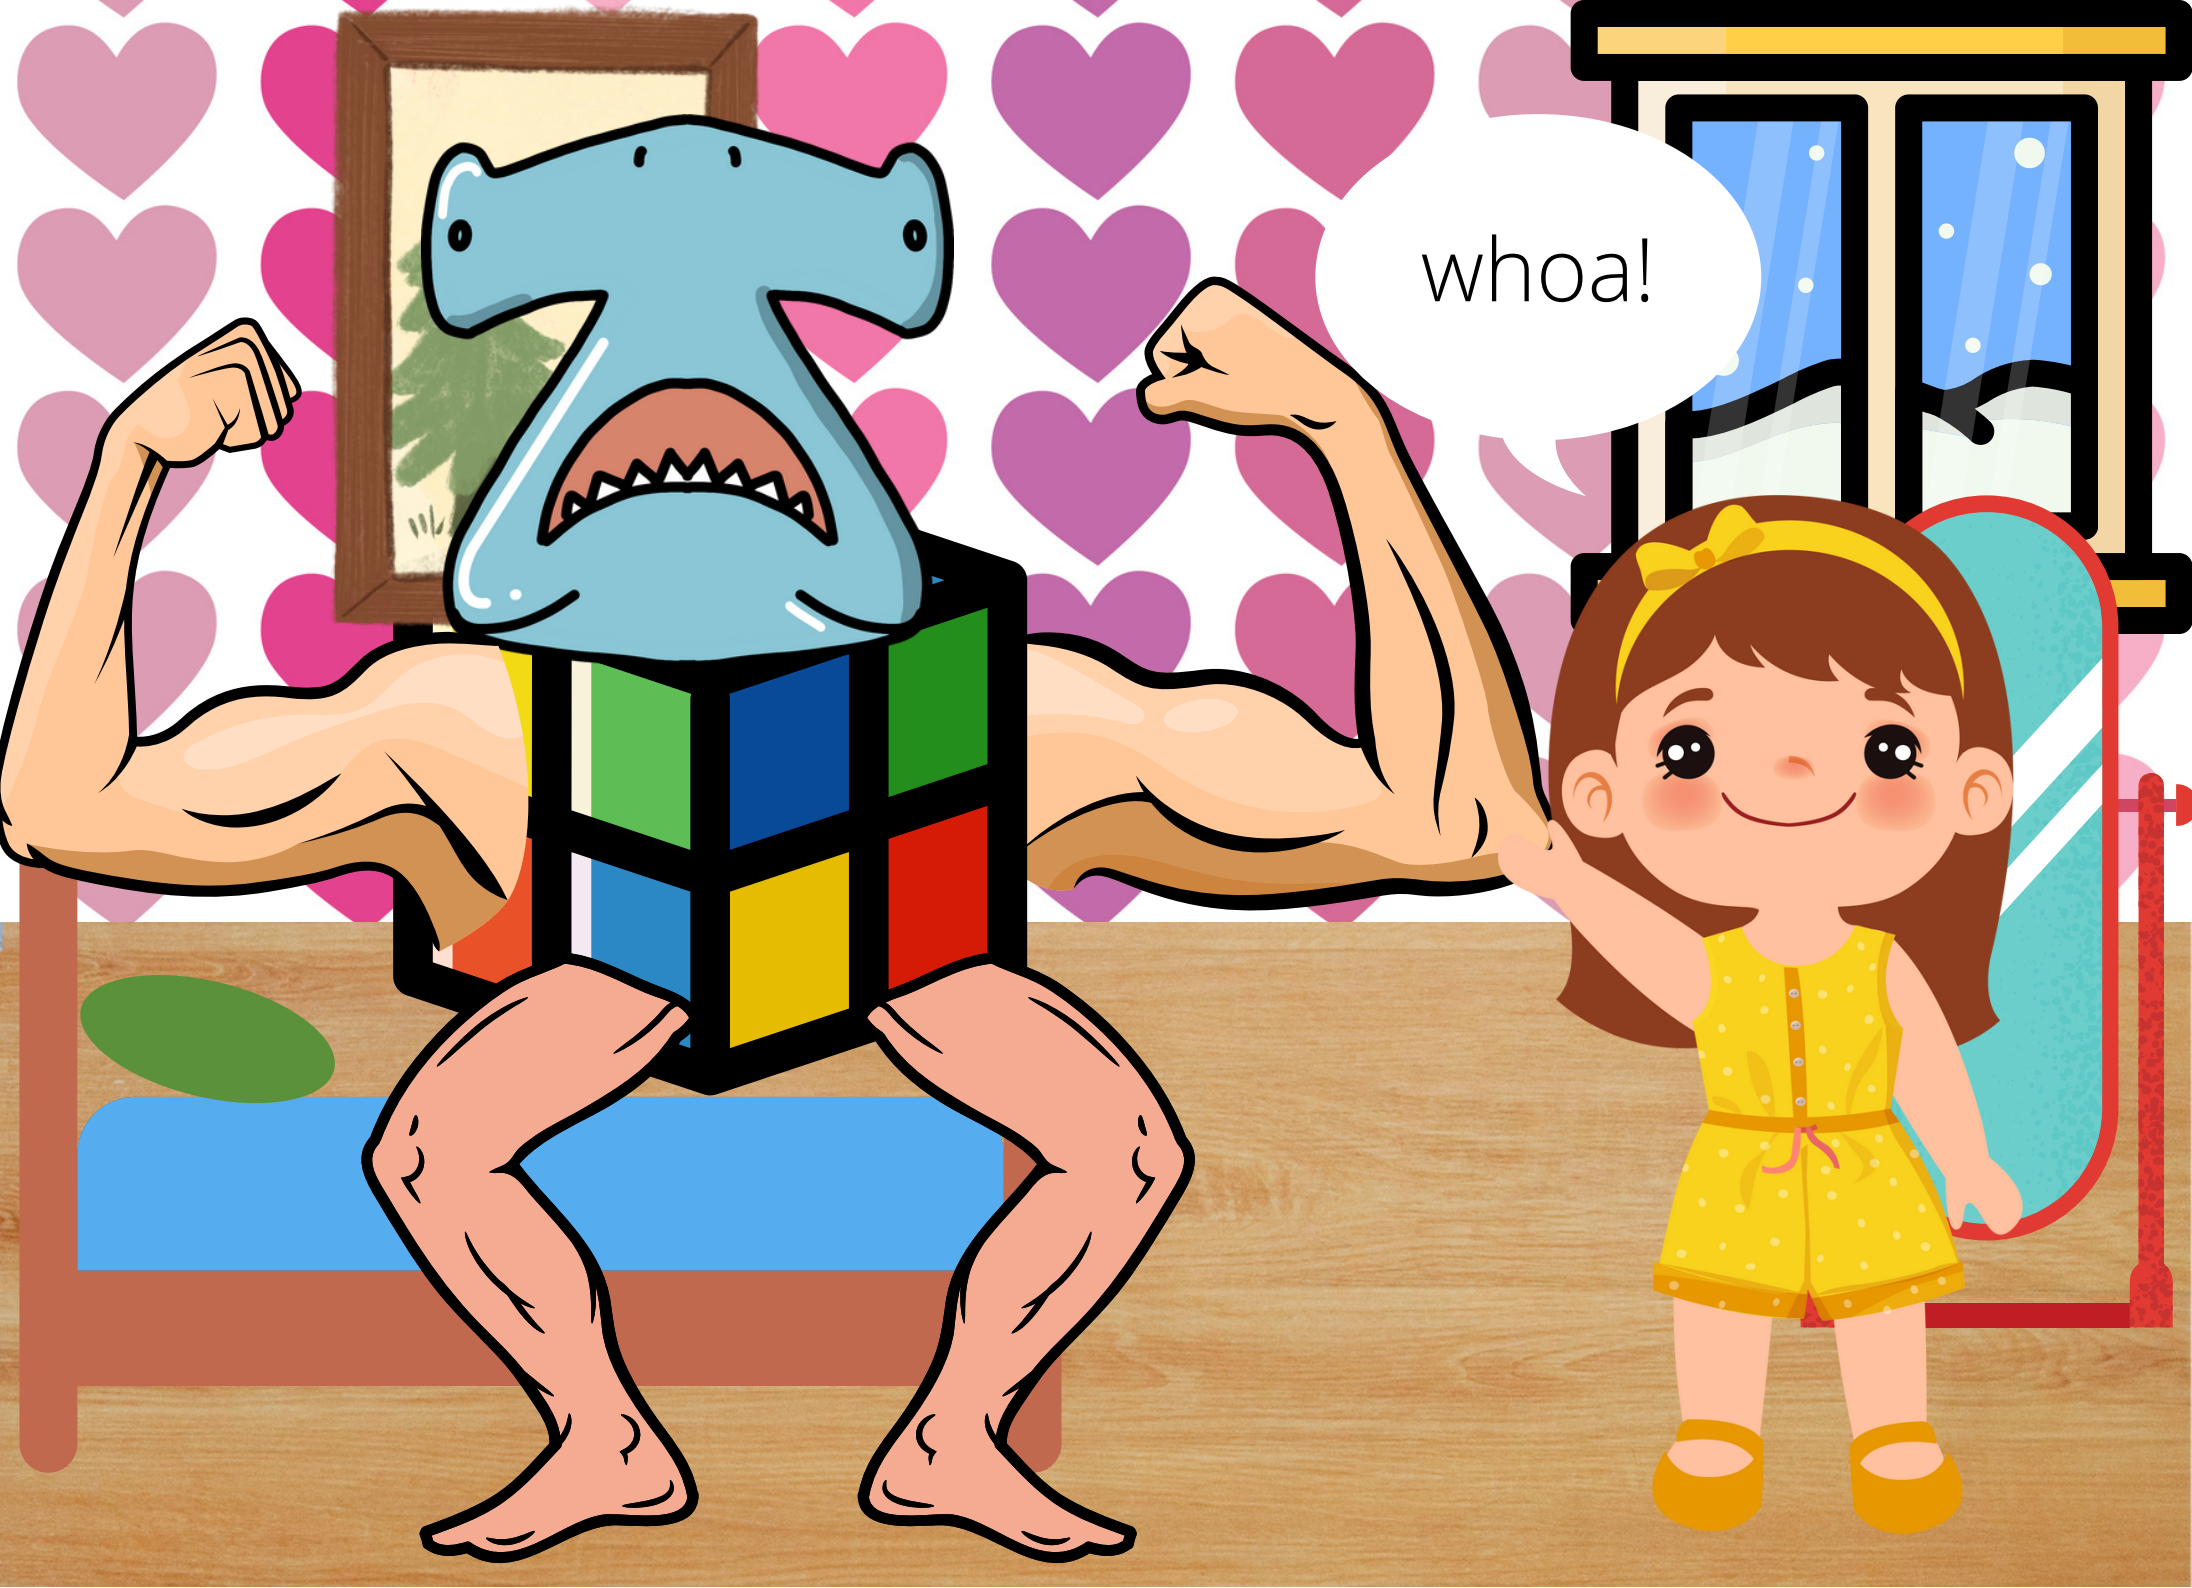

The next day she looked out the window and saw snow floating like a parachute as it came down.

“That’s odd, it’s the start of summer, it should be sunny and warm.” thought Jess.

She shut her eyes so she could imagine a warm
Summer's day with blue
skies, but when she opened
them, all she saw in her room
was a giant.....THING!
It had a shark head, a rubix
cube for a body, strong,
muscly arms, and legs.

whoa!

Jess needed to hide this thing. She called her brother but he didn't pick up.

"Oh wait, he's at his uni studying," she said to herself. She needed to find a way to get rid of it.

I need to get rid of this!

Then suddenly an idea popped into her head, she could imagine
the...thing, away and maybe even the snow too!

So she shut her eyes and imagined
and when she opened them it was
gone.

Yay! It's
gone!

The next day at school
Nicky came over to Jess
and saw the hair tie in her hand.

“Hey, my hair tie!” she said.

“Oh, this is yours?” Jess asked.

“Yep.” Nicky replied.

Hey, my hair tie!

BRRRRRIIIINNGG!

“Welp, we better get to class.”said Jess.

“Yep.”Nicky replied.

“See you at, play time
Nicky.”Jess goodbye

“Ok, see ya.”Nicky said.

Fin

I would like to give a big thank you to my teacher for helping
me make this
possible

This story is called “Imagine”.
It is written to encourage kids of all ages to use their imagination
more! In this story you will meet a girl called Jess, she is smart, creative and funny. It will take you on a fun, cool and imaginative
journey with the characters Jess
and Nicky .

