

I DEDICATE THIS TO MY MOTHER AND FATHER.

Once a girl named Zara was very naughty but everyone loved her anyways. She did not believe in gods. So in all puja days she ran away and hid for one day. Nobody knew where she went.

So as it happened, in the Durga puja. It was a very important event that no one should miss. Everyone kept an eye on Zara but somehow she escaped.

All the members of the family started chasing her. Zara felt very scared. After all, she had done something wrong. At last the family caught up with her. She had no where to go.

Zara yelled and annoyed everyone in the house at the end she had to go to the puja. Then down, she did something very dangerous and horrible.

She.....
kicked....the....g
oddess!!!!!!!!!!

Then some miracle happened! Maa Durga came to life and made Zara as still as ice. Zara said sorry and begged to the goddess. Then the goddess softened and made her normal again.

From that day she became a totally changed girl. She also prayed a lot.

The end

Goodbye 😊

So I hope friends that you would also pray like me. I have done a great sin and repented it. So I hope others don't do it. Friends, I also tell you that you should believe in god.
