

The Cut down

By Tywinn

Dedicated to the animals and to our father God

It was a sunny day in the forest. There was a brown 8-year-old small kitten eating a large bone.

BOOM-BOOM-BOOM! He heard the loud sound of trees falling down. It terrified him. He ran away in terror from the trees!

Then he saw some men
cutting down trees.
He felt angry because birds could die. He knew what would happen if all trees were gone. They would lose their home.

The kitten met
someone when he
rested on a fallen tree. His name is Scotty.

Scotty is a 10-year-old Philippine eaglet.

They met beside a
fallen tree.

Scotty angrily chased
the men away because they were cutting down trees. He must stop them.

Then Scotty
came back to the kitten to help him.

Scotty led the kitten to his home near the forest.

Inside Scotty's
home, they felt safe.

But then.....

The kitten saw another man, who was cutting down a tree next to a baby possum! The possum could die!

He knew what to do.

The angry kitten scratched the man, and he ran away so fast, as fast as his legs could carry him.

Then he headed back to Scotty's
home.

And the possum
came too.

About the author

My name is Tywinn, I am 8 years old

I am From the Philippines.

I believe that we should help the world by planting more trees. I encourage everyone to recycle, reuse and reduse.

The kitten and the eaglet have to stop the people from cutting trees.
But will they save a baby possum from death at a falling tree?