

The Forest Magical Kingdom

By Nishala

Buzz, buzz, buzz. It was a glorious day in the forest where there was a girl and her family. They were princes and princesses. They loved nature, insects, trees and they especially loved their family.

Violet said, "We need food!"

Rose said, "I agree, we are looking for food in the forest."

Bob said, "We should kill the animals."

Rose said, "Noooooo, we can't kill the animals."

Bob said, "So what- I am as strong as a wrestler and I am as fast as a cheetah."

Ash said, "I agree but maybe we should wait for a bear with honey."

Violet said , "I agree too."

So they waited and waited and waited, but then they stopped waiting and decided to walk and walk and walk.

Then, from the edge of their eyes they found a magical kingdom so they went inside and Rose said, "I love it. It is the most magical thing I have ever seen".

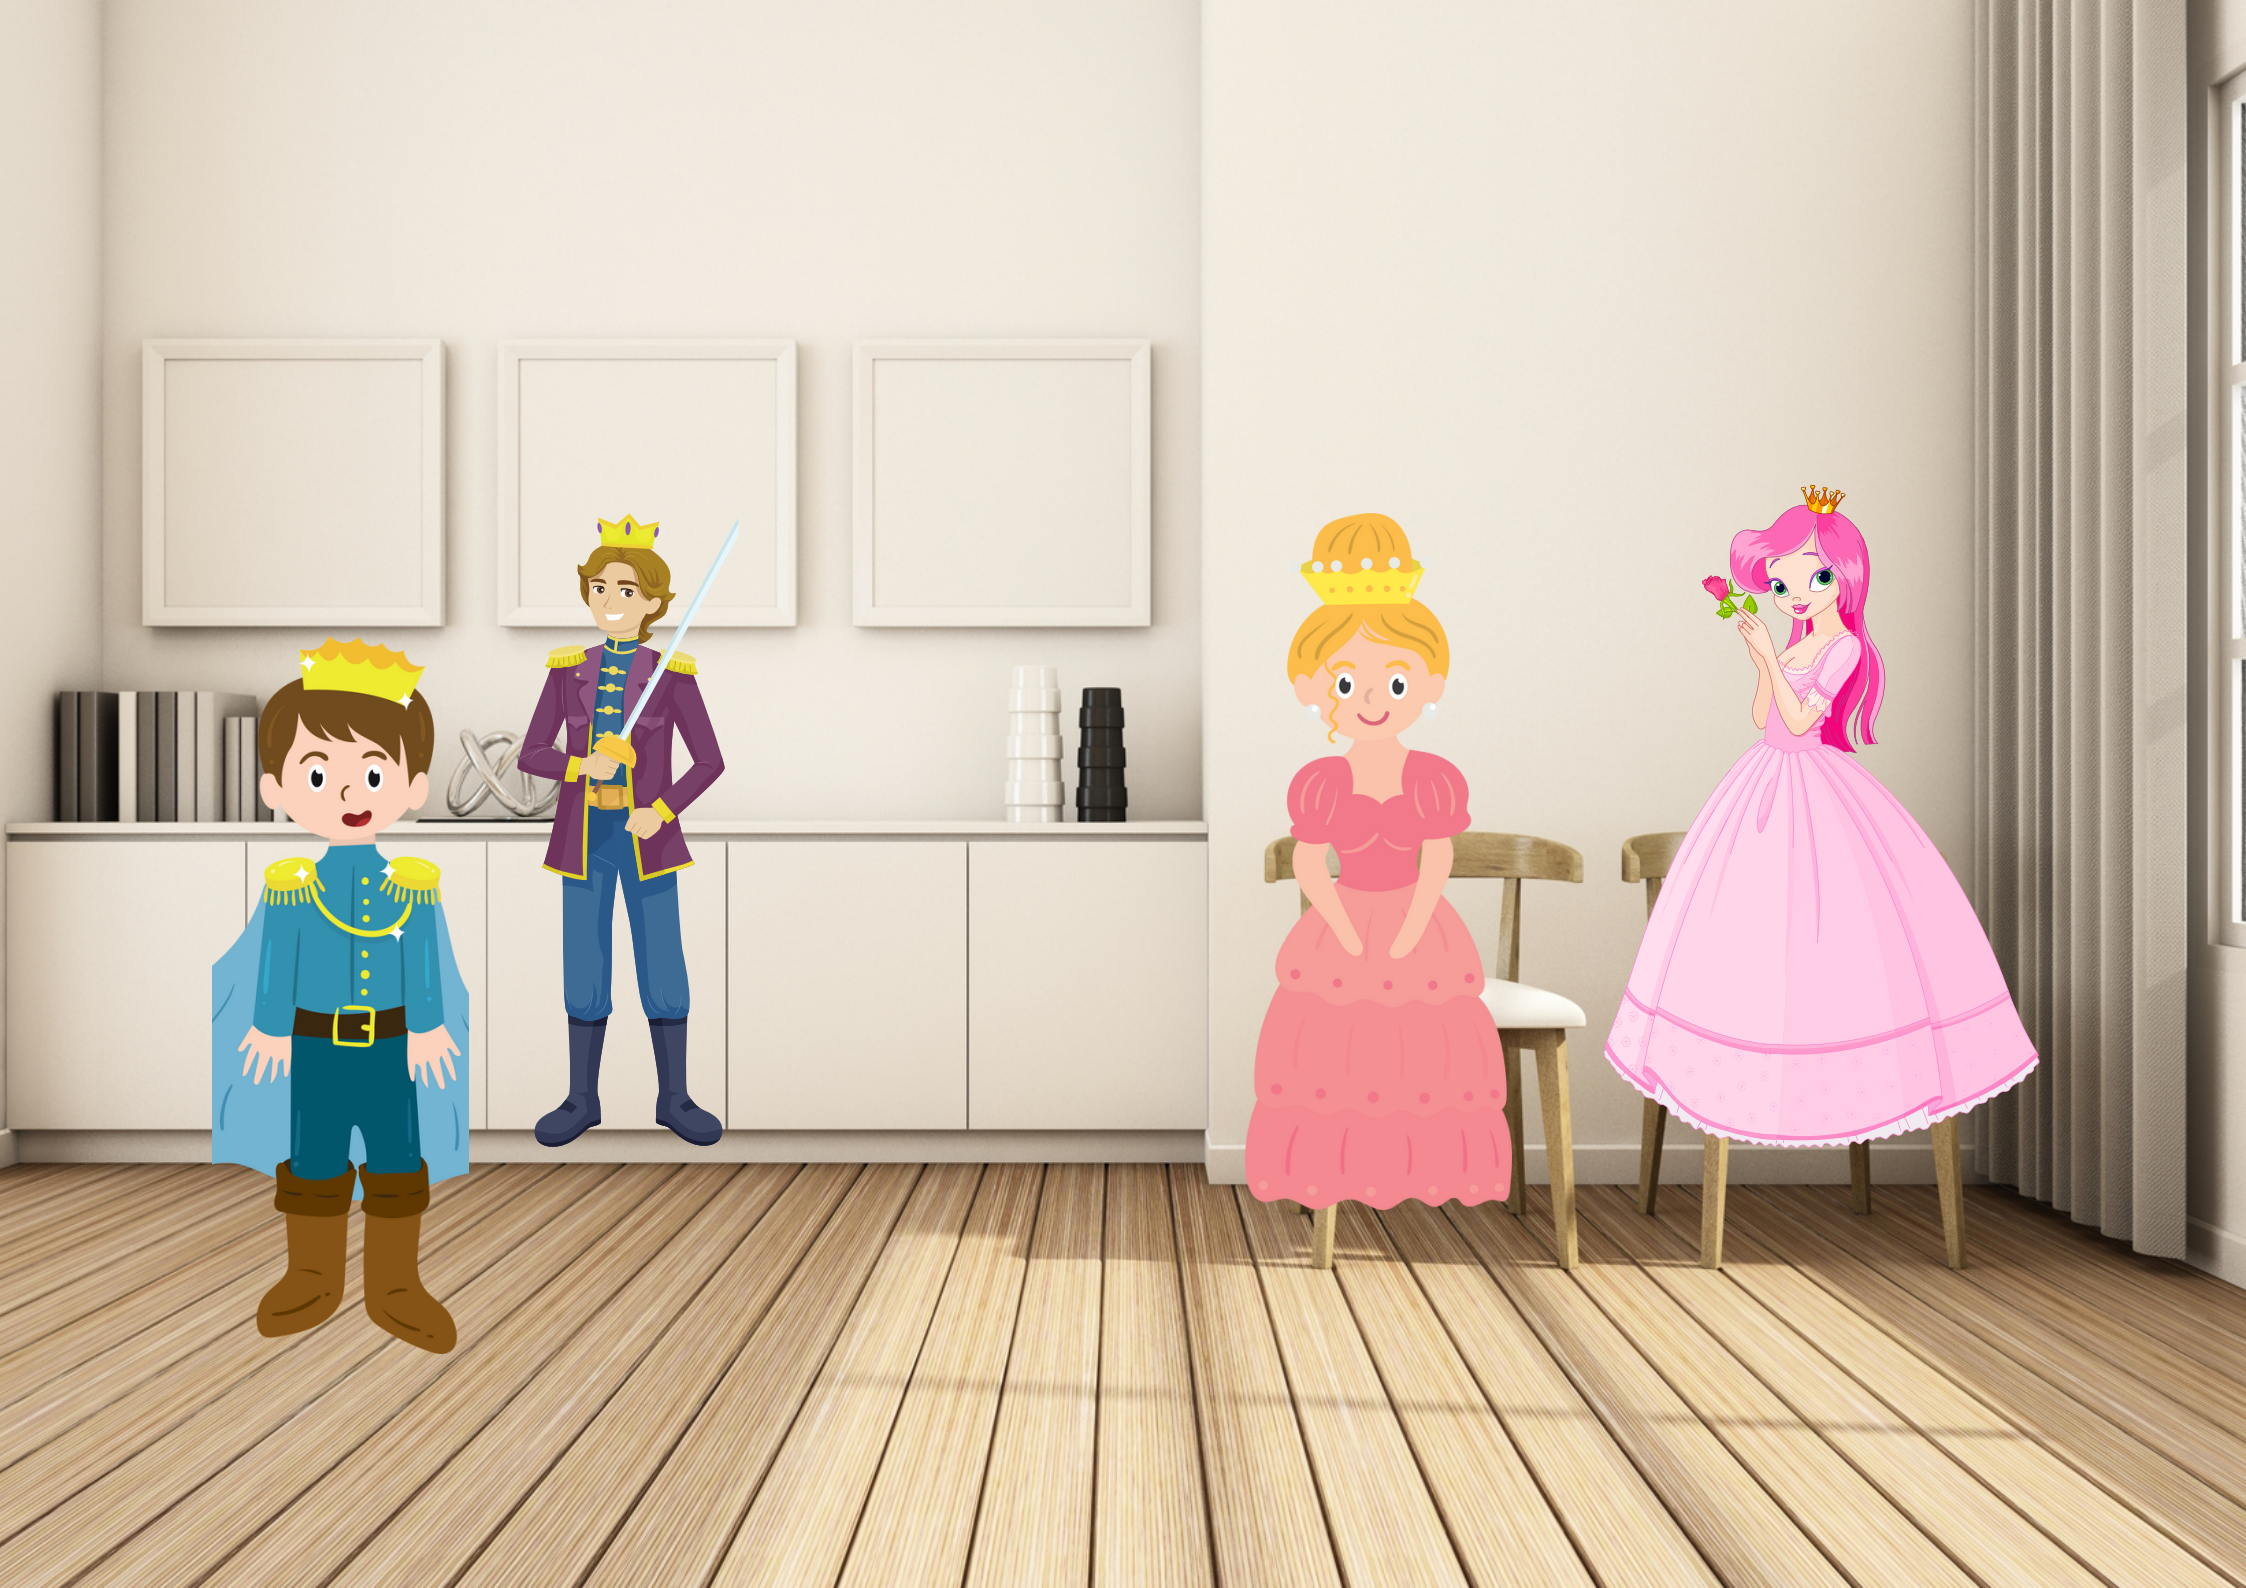

One year later they were living the richest lives.

Violet said, "I see a massage place, I am going to check it out."

Rose said, " Can I come too?"

Violet said, "Yes you can."

One hour later Violet said, "That massage place was greater than money and it felt like the gold was massaging me- it was smoother than butter."

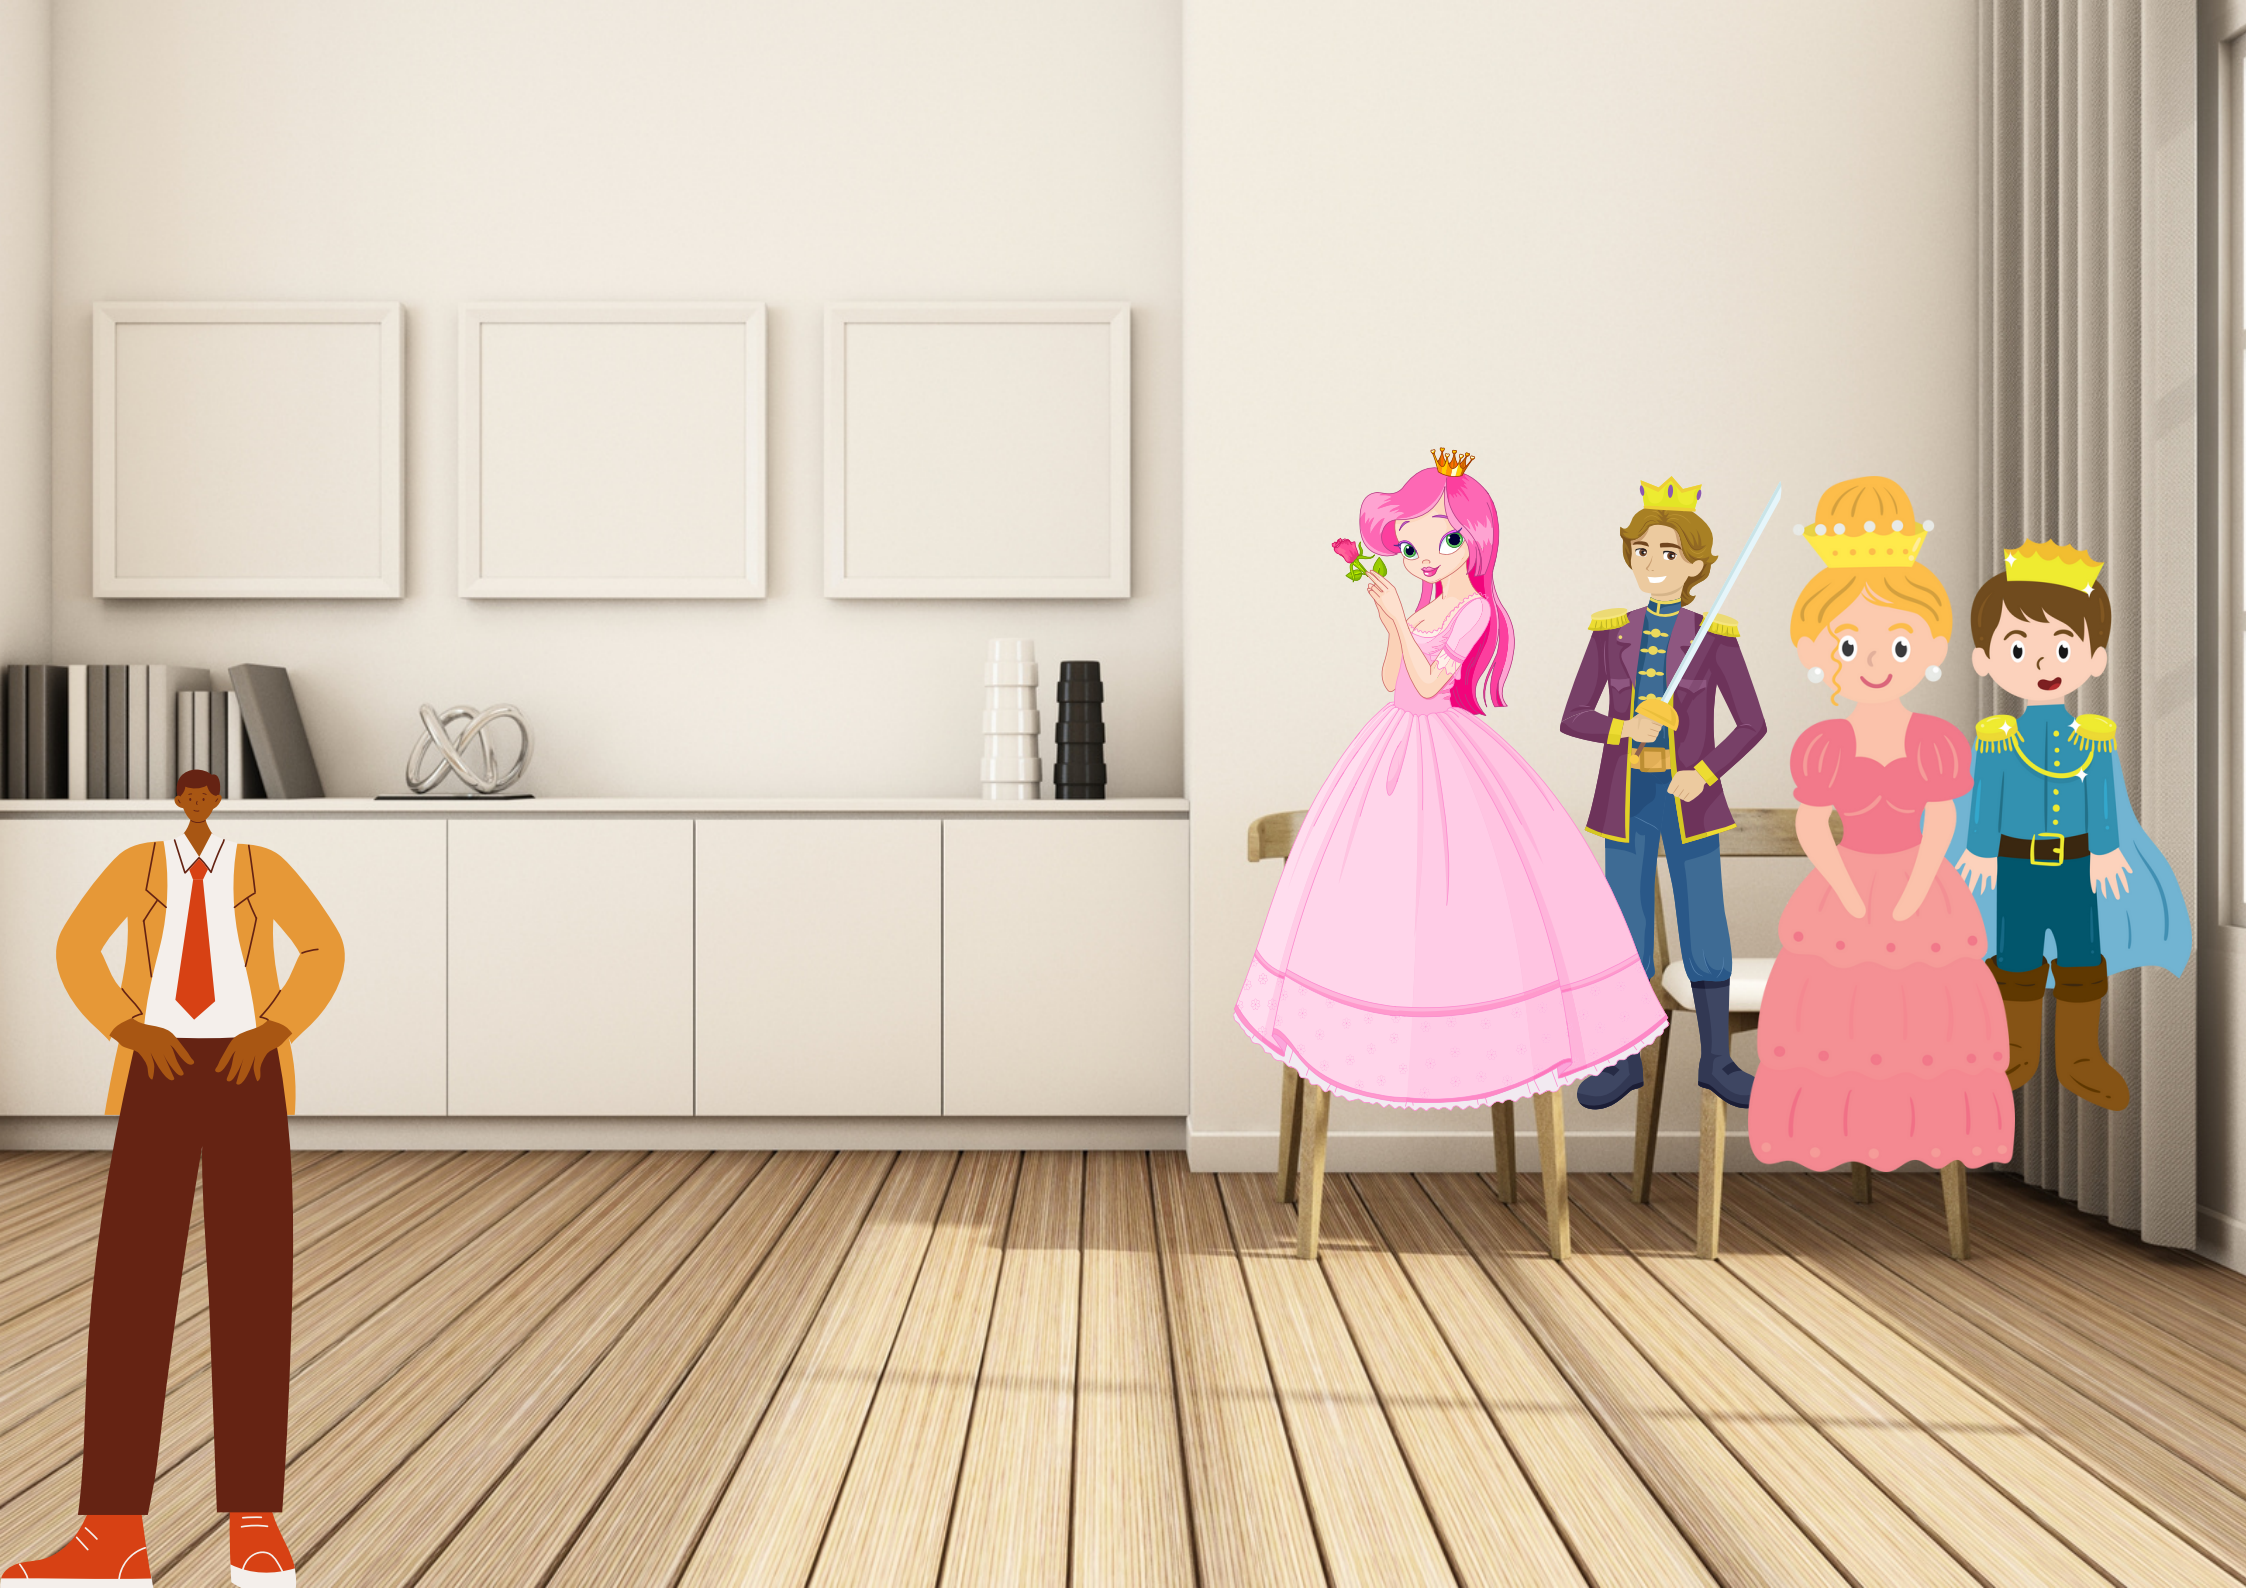

Later on, we taught Rose how to cook.

Then one stormy night the windows were rattling like a rattlesnake. They were scared because it was the owner they were frightened of. But the owner said, "Where are those little rascals? I hate people."

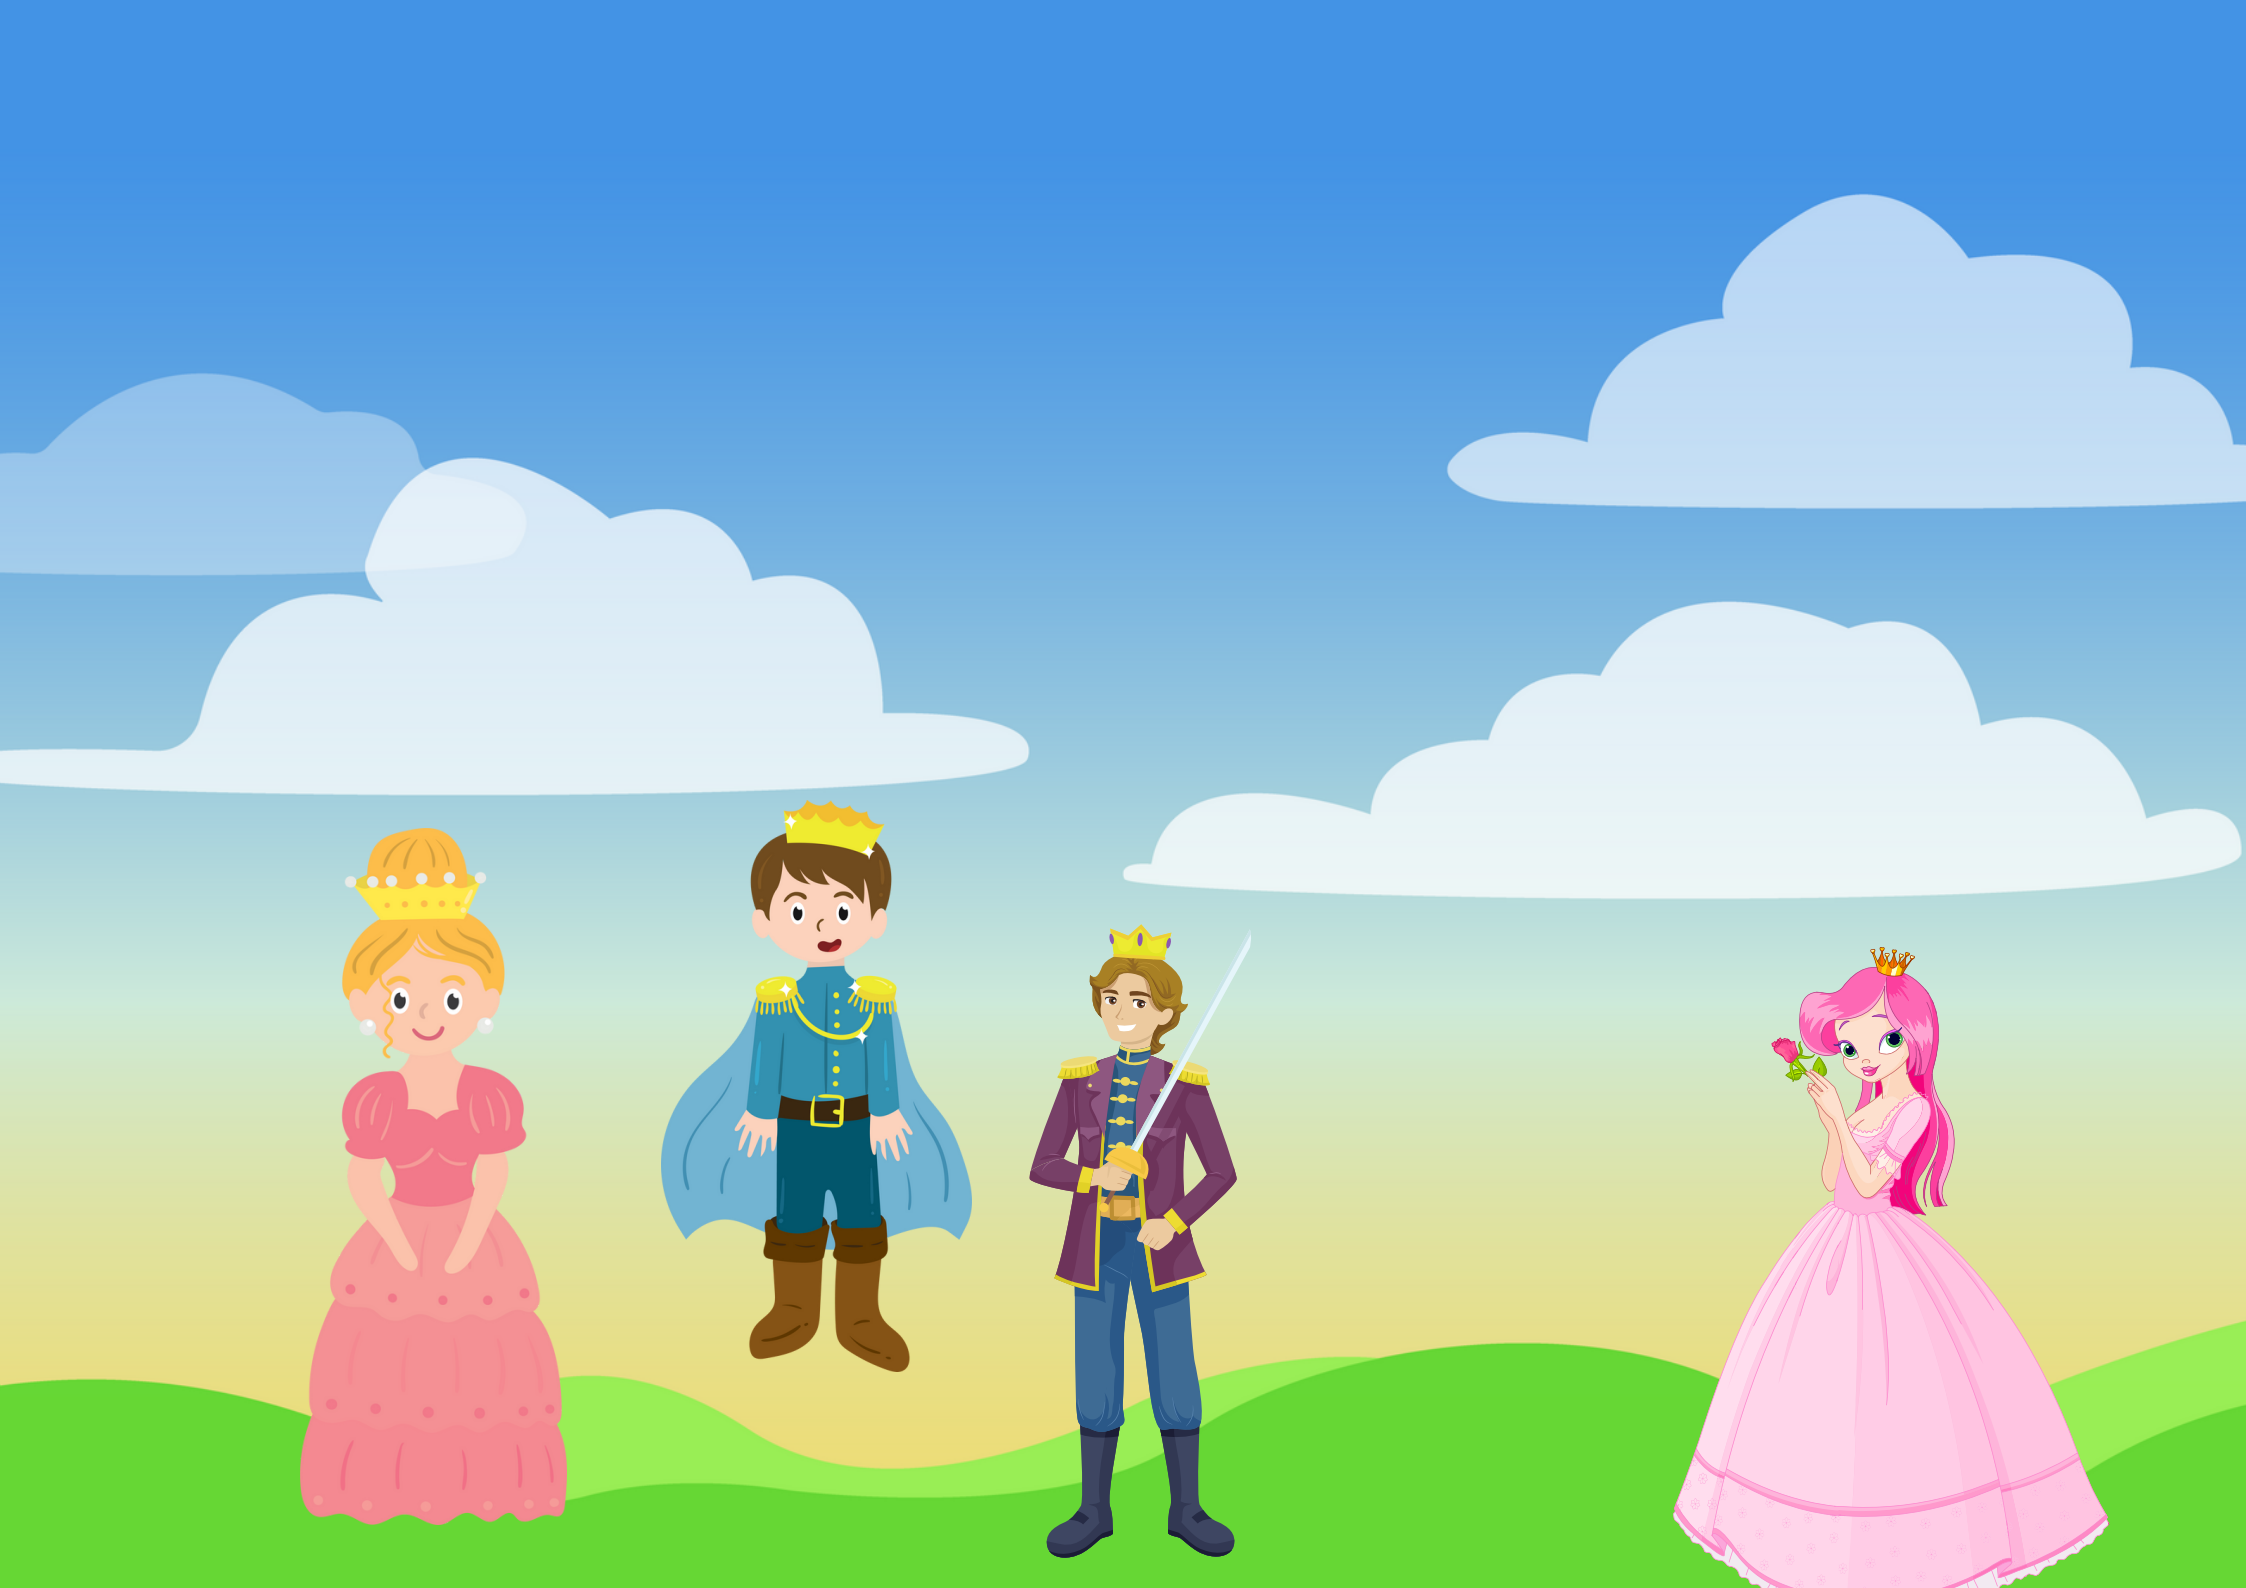

Five minutes later they were kicked out of their kingdom.

Sadly, five years later they were skinny and hungry with nowhere to live.
