

WELL DONE DOGGY

By Patrick

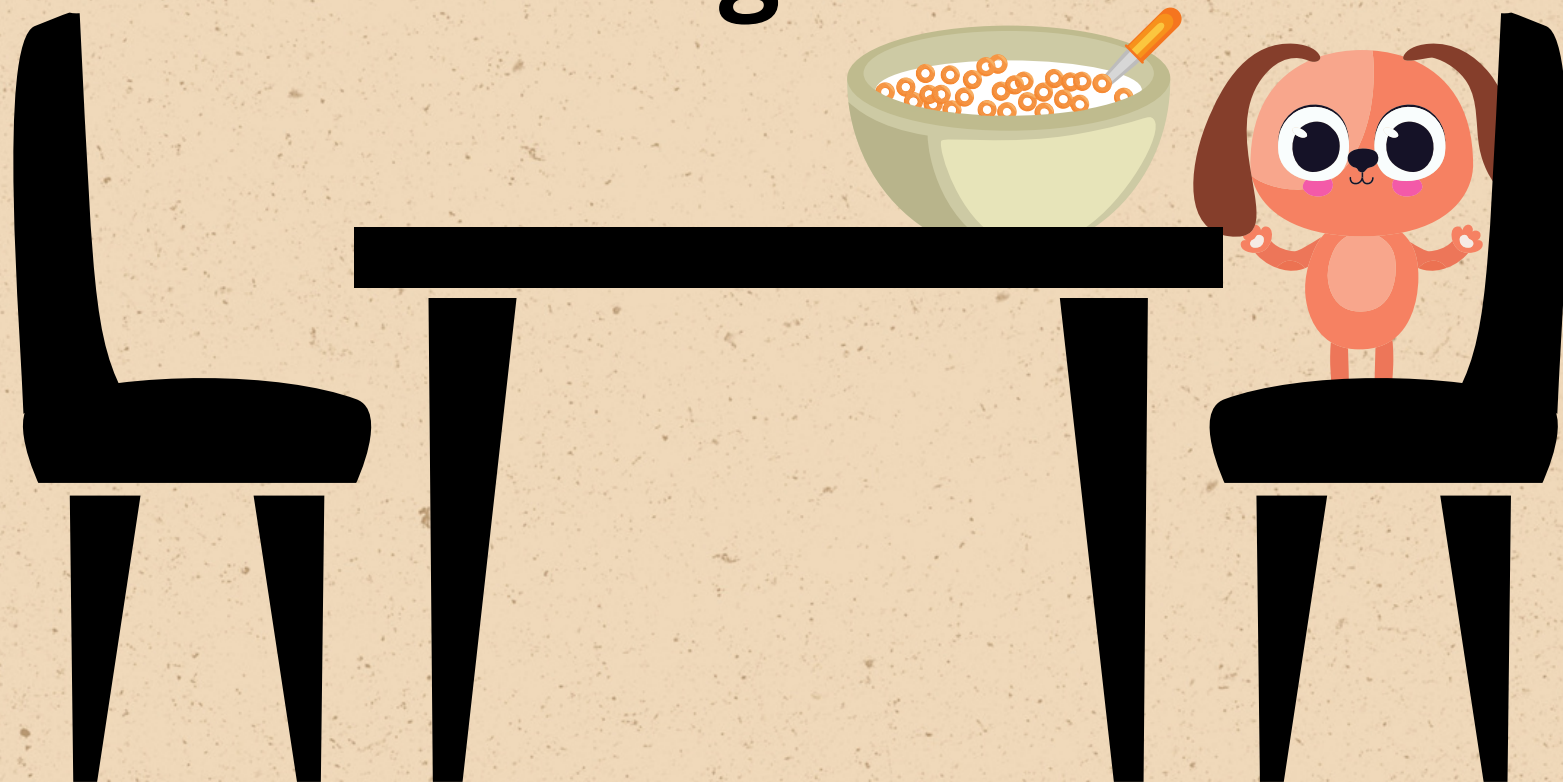

One freezing morning, on the Moon there was a family of dogs. Their names were Mummy Doggy, Daddy Doggy, Naughty Doggy and Well Done Doggy.

Usually Well Done Doggy wakes up at 8:00am, but on this very Monday morning he woke up at 6:00 in the morning!

Well Done Doggy had some cereal and went outside. The rest of the family were still asleep so Well Done Doggy tried to be very quiet and for some reason he was standing on his chair!

[illegible]

Unfortunately he woke up Daddy Dog so he went outside and at that very moment
Well Done Doggy fell off the Moon!

He closed his eyes and prepared for the worst.

Well Done Doggy was scared but Well Done Doggy was brave. He got up and walked around and he found himself in a park. There were lots of people in the park.

Once Well Done Doggy got out of the park
he went to a Cafe and luckily there was a dog bowl that he could drink from.

That night Well Done Doggy slept under a shelter that he made with sticks and leaves. He was still very cold and frightened.

It was a really foggy day and Well Done Doggy went to the same Cafe as yesterday to have some water.

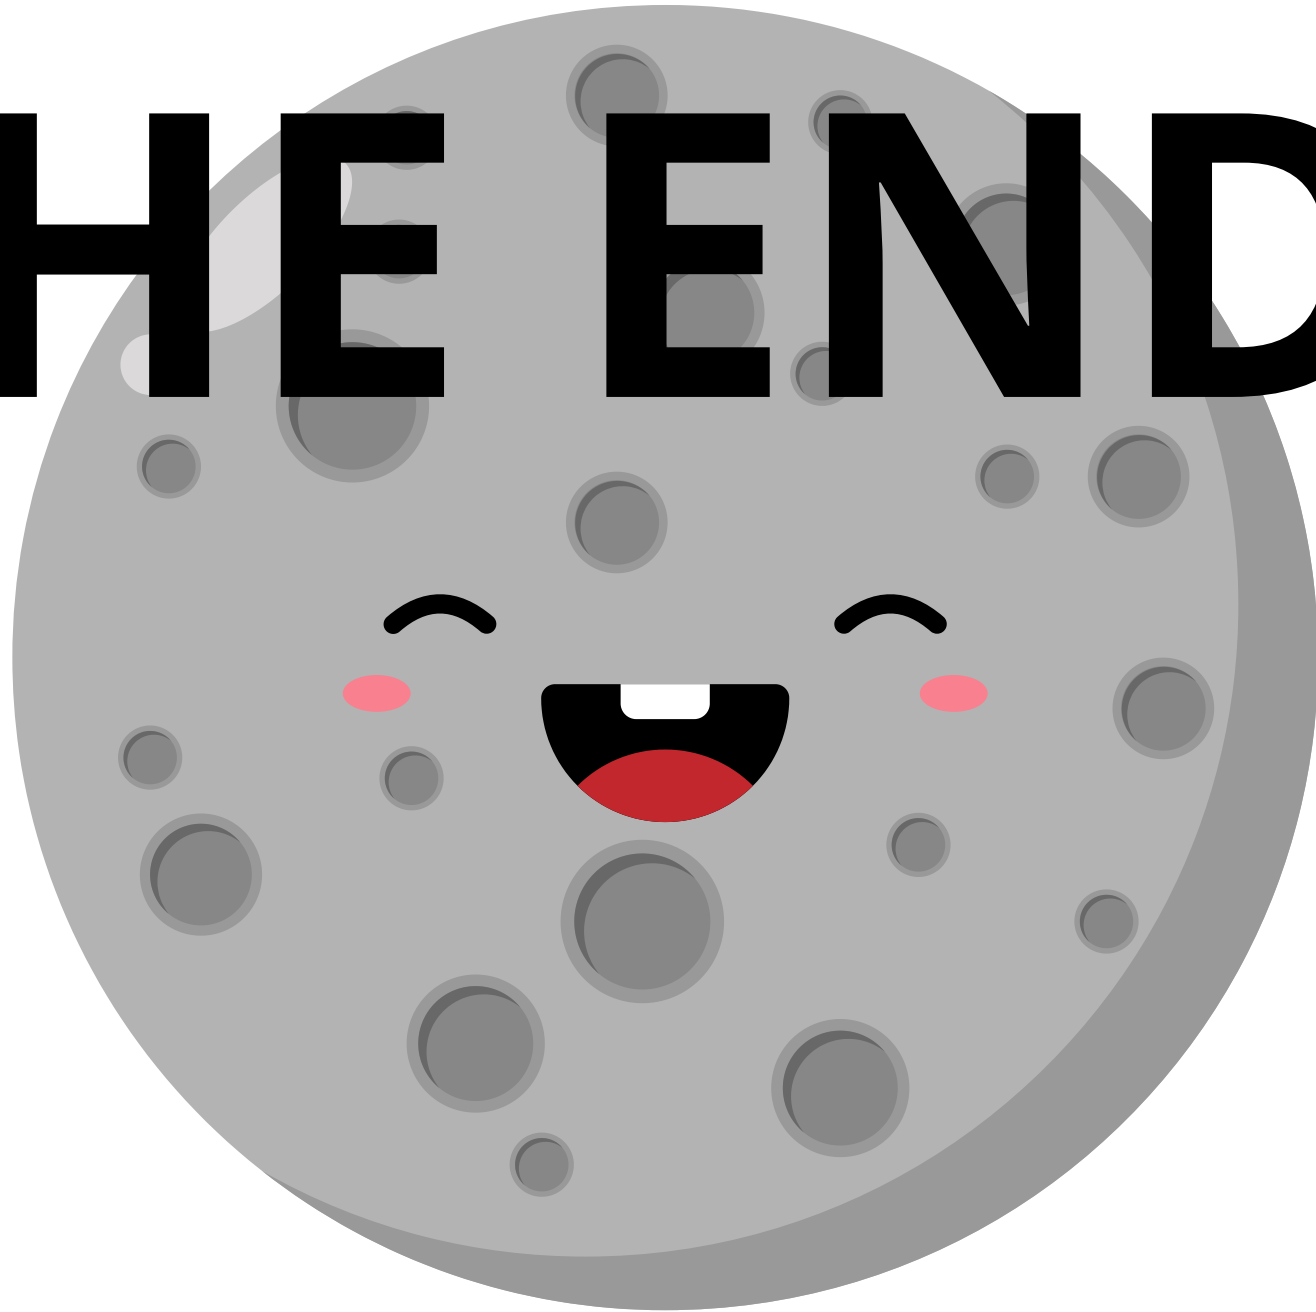

The next day Well Done Doggy found a lot of rubbish in the town. Then a miracle happened.

His mum and dad came and got him! Well Done Doggy lived a long and happy life!

THE END!

Well Done Doggy is a really cute dog but when his life changes will everything be the same?

Join Well Done Doggy on an adventure across earth!
