

Where are the Dugongs

Written and Illustrated by Ethan Vaz

I HAVE DEDICATED THIS BOOK TOWARDS THE ANIMALS WHO ARE ENDANGERED AND EXTINCT

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

MY NAME IS ETHAN VAZ AND I HAVE MADE THIS BOOK FOR THE LOVE OF ANIMALS AND ANIMAL CONSERVATION. TO SAVE ANIMALS FROM EXTINCTION

On a quiet spring day in Okinawa (an island in Japan), 21-year-old Kenzo was sitting under a Japanese Cherry Blossom Tree. He was staring at the Shimmering waters and was pondering where have the rare white dugongs disappeared as he saw the Kohaku Koi swimming in front of him,

He saw something white stranded in the sand as he ran to see what it was, to his surprise it was a white dugong laying in the sand. As he examined the Dugongs body, he found lots of scars and it was losing a lot of blood.

Fortunately Kenzo was a dugong zoologist and rehabilitator, he transferred him to his truck where there was a pool full of water, he took the dugong to the rehabilitation centre
Where more zoologists were present.

They treated the dugong for weeks. Kenzo and the Dugong bonded a lot together. Kenzo also named the Dugong “Daichi” meaning “From the Earth” and he found out she was a girl.

One day Kenzo's boss told him that they are going to release Daichi the Dugong into the wild that afternoon, Kenzo was really sad but he knew it was the best thing to do.

As Kenzo was leaving he said one last Good Bye to Daichi and he left to his home. On his way he saw a large boat with a large net capturing many Dugongs

“That’s how all the dugongs are disappearing” and in the boat he saw the evillest man his name was Ren Yi Gin he was a multi-millionaire

Kenzo

saw a small paddle boat and swiftly paddled towards the enormous ship as he reached, he sneaked under the boat and called “110” (Police Department phone number in japan)

The police came and arrested all Ren Yi Gin crew and him
And that's how the story ends.

