Where Are We?

DEDICATED TO SCHOOL

Once upon a time there was a teenager whose name was Justin.

Justin was 15 years old. On Thursday morning he went to play with his friends outside.

However, a few minutes later it started to rain, so Justin and his friends went inside the house.

Unfortunately, Justin forgot his phone, leaving it outside in the rain. He felt miserable and sad.

*As his phone was now broken.
Justin continued to be miserable. Later his mom talked with him and said, “tomorrow we are going to go for a car ride to the docks”.*

On friday morning they packed their bags for one hour. After that, Justin's dad needed to go to the toilet, so they waited outside for him.

Justin's dad finally came out and locked the front door. They then all got in the car and drove for 30 minutes.

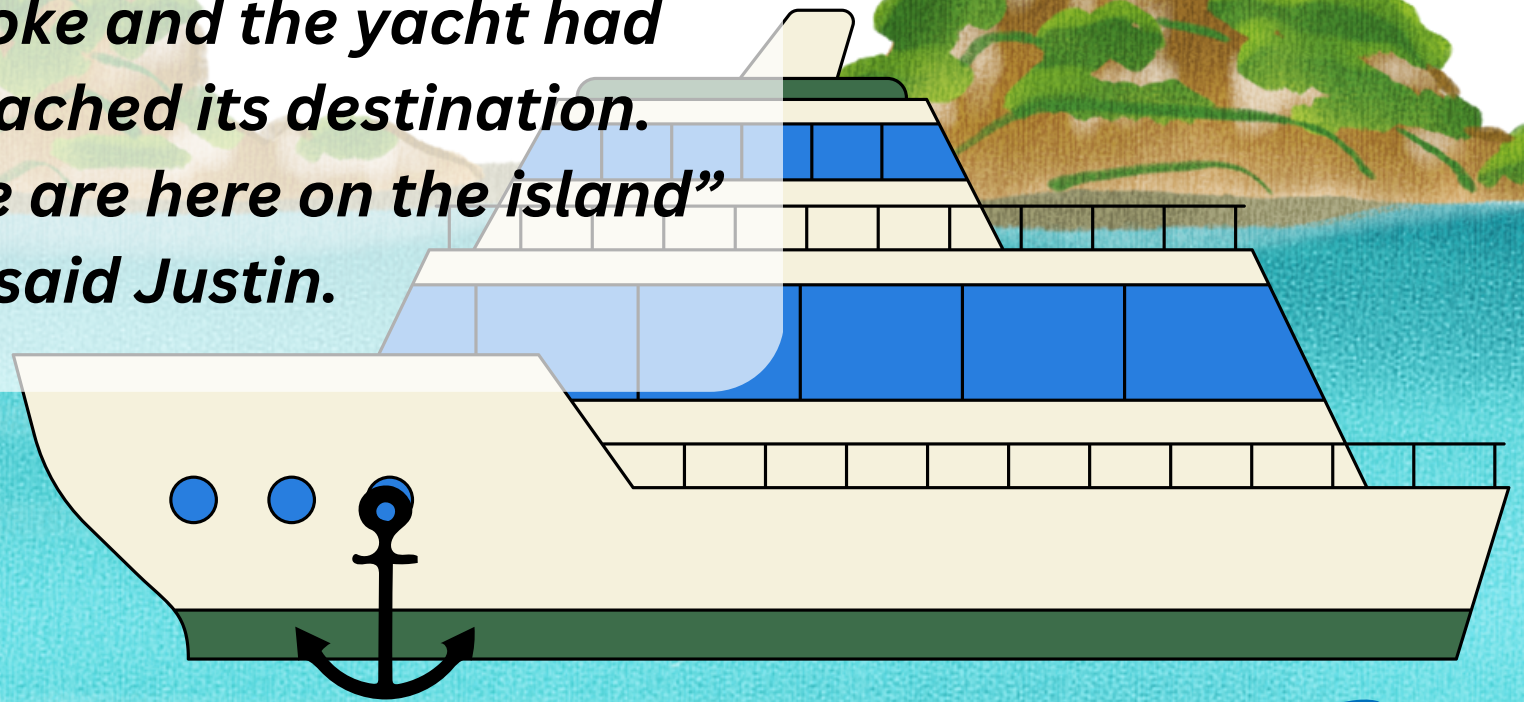

They arrived at the docks and surprisingly hopped onto a yacht! “How are you?” said the skipper. “We are all good” replied the family excitedly. A couple of minutes later the yacht moved slowly from the dock and off into the distance.

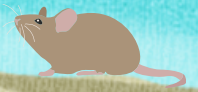

After a short sleep, Justin and his family awoke and the yacht had already reached its destination.

“Wake up we are here on the island” said Justin.

The family got off the yacht and saw an entrance to a forest. "Before we go in " said Justins dad, "let's take a photo together as a family".

Whilst the skipper of the yacht sat at the shore playing video games, the family went into the forest to have an adventure. But, when they sat down amongst the trees, a strange noise was heard coming from the other side of the forest. Justin's dad looked scared and began to run. Everyone else followed!

After catching up with Justin's dad, they all shouted "WAIT WE NEED TO STOP AND DRINK". The scary noise could still be heard and then in the distance they saw a crowd of mice running towards them!

Strangely, a nice mouse was heard shouting “GUYS STOP CHASING THESE NICE PEOPLE”.
But the other mice seemed not to care and evilly bellowed “let’s get them, let's get them!” Justin continued to run with his family.

Luckily, Justin and his family managed to run out of the forest. "Oh no we can't go out of the forest or we will get skin cancer." said some of the mice. So the mice went back into the forest.

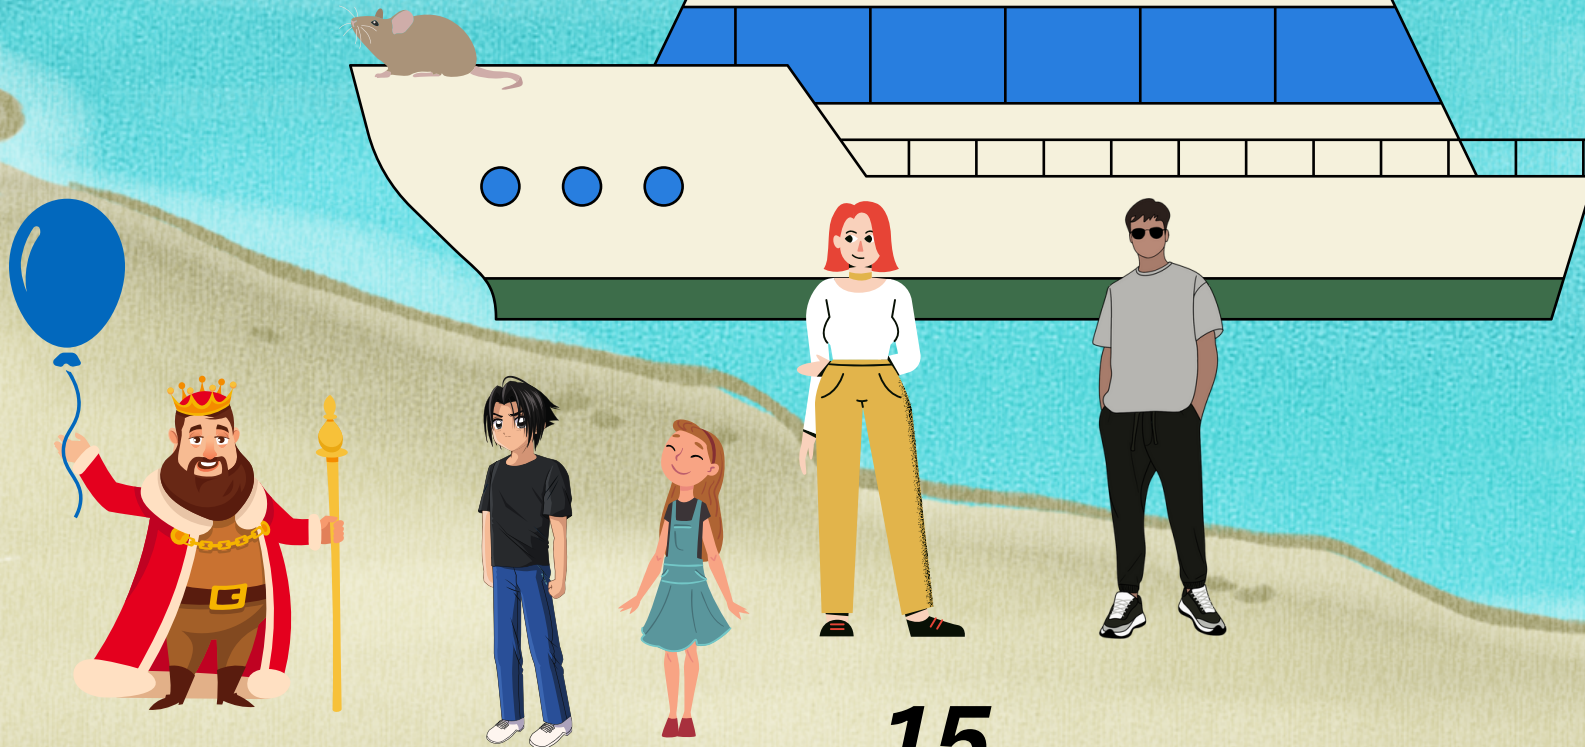

Let's Go!

The skipper of the yacht was still playing computer games. A loud noise came down from the sky and suddenly a little man appeared in front of them. "Who are you?" said Justin's dad. "I'm the king" replied the little man. Everybody looked shocked.

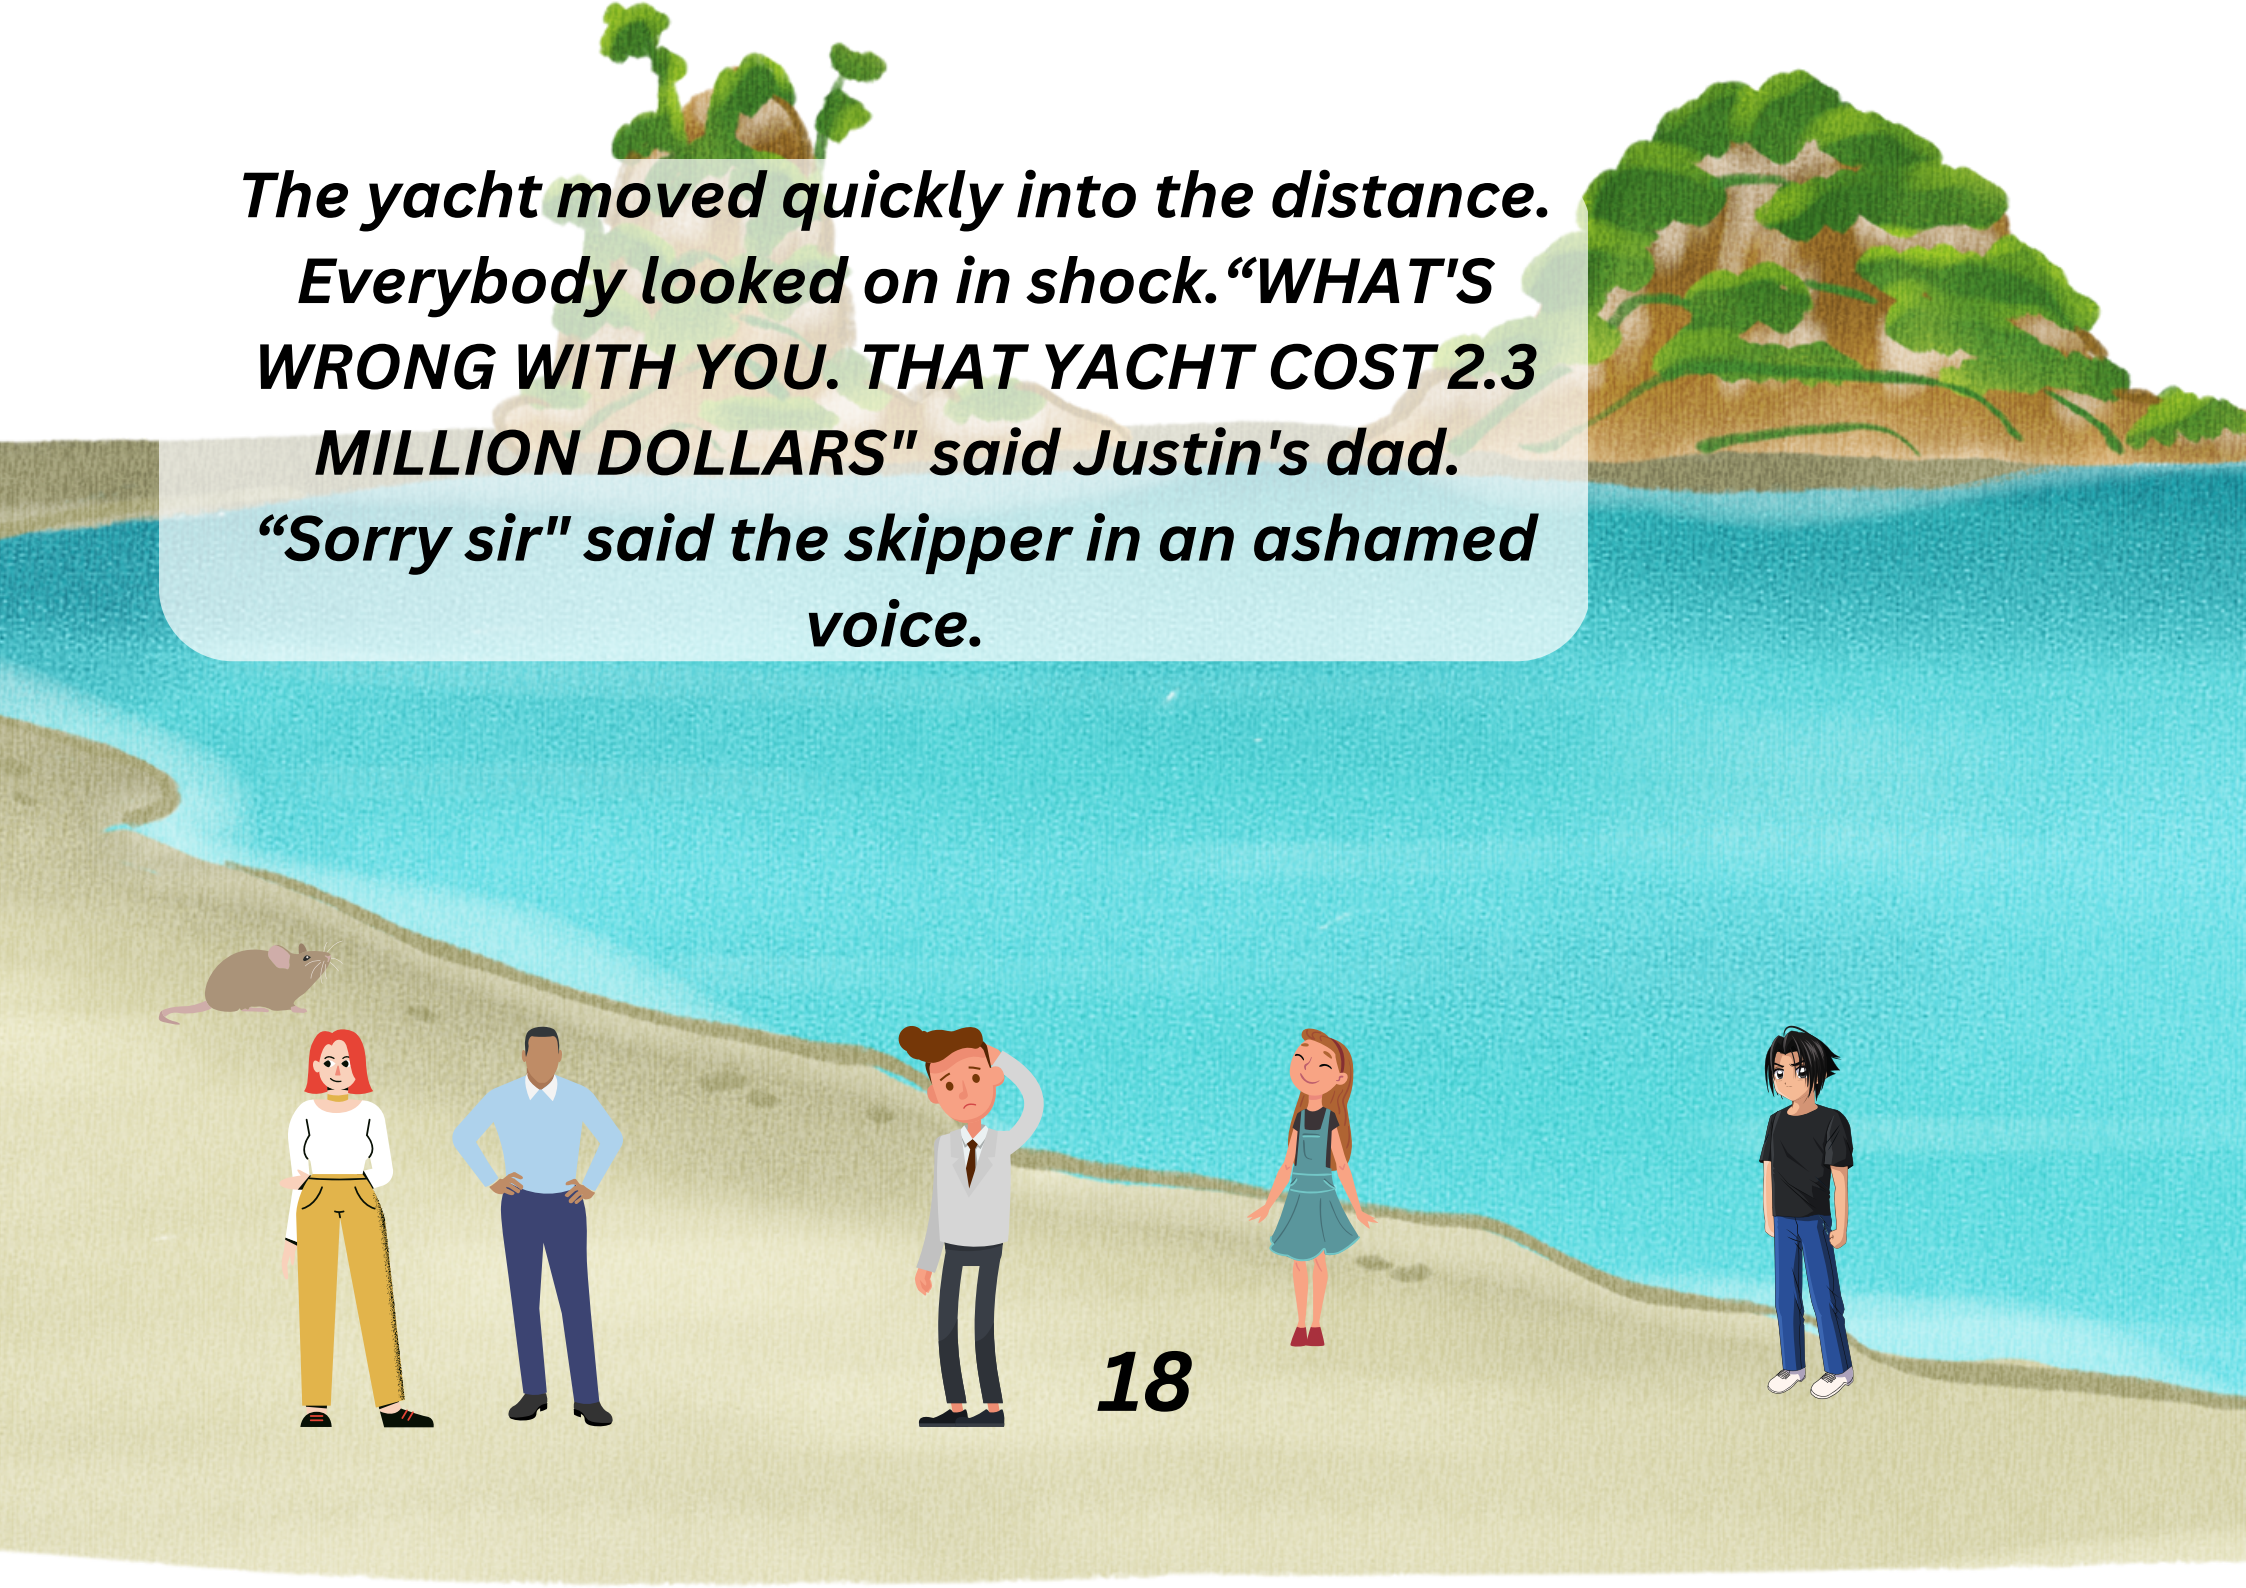

After talking with the king about something, Justin saw the yacht leaving the shore. "BRO THE YACHT IS LEAVING THE SHORE " he shrieked, but the skipper couldn't hear him as he had ear phones on!

Justin screamed at the skipper as he finally noticed the yacht was floating away. He quickly dropped his phone and ran to the moving yacht but it was too far away.

The yacht moved quickly into the distance.
Everybody looked on in shock. "WHAT'S WRONG WITH YOU. THAT YACHT COST 2.3 MILLION DOLLARS" said Justin's dad.
"Sorry sir" said the skipper in an ashamed voice.

The little king then flew up into the sky and saw the yacht on the other side of the island. "The yacht is on the other side of the island" said the king. After hearing his words, Justin and his family shouted aloud, "let's go there now".

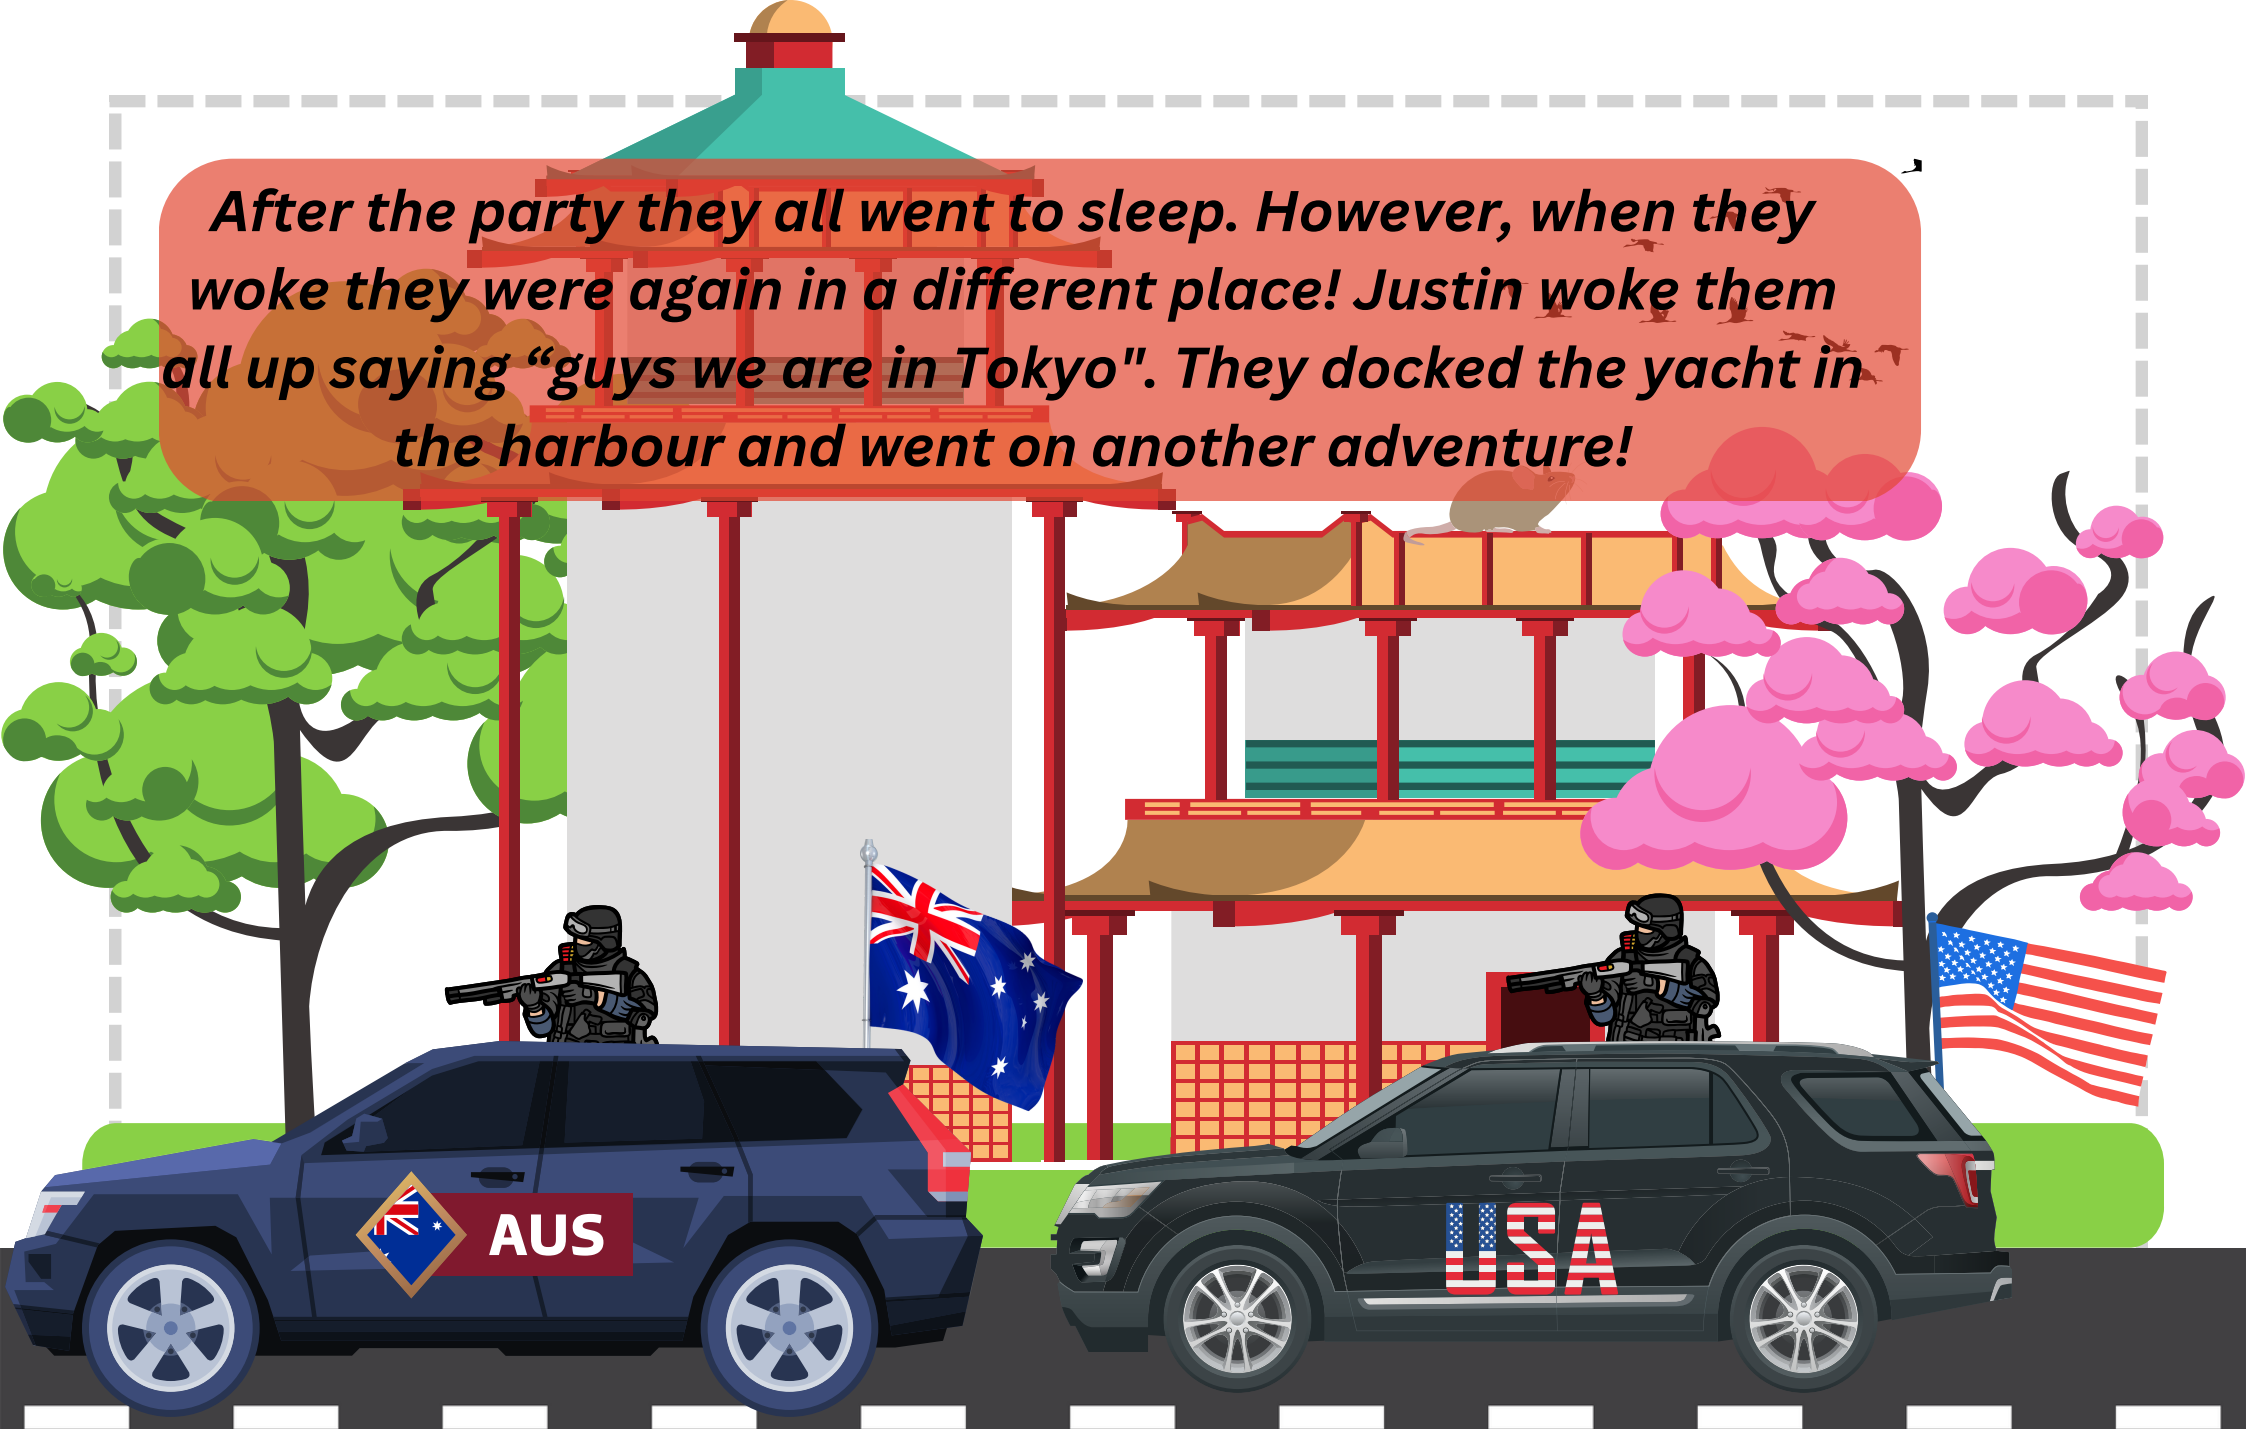

The family ran back into the forest as fast as they could, hoping that they would not meet the mice again! After a few minutes they all came out from the bushes. There on the other side of the island was the yacht, docked on the shore waiting for them.

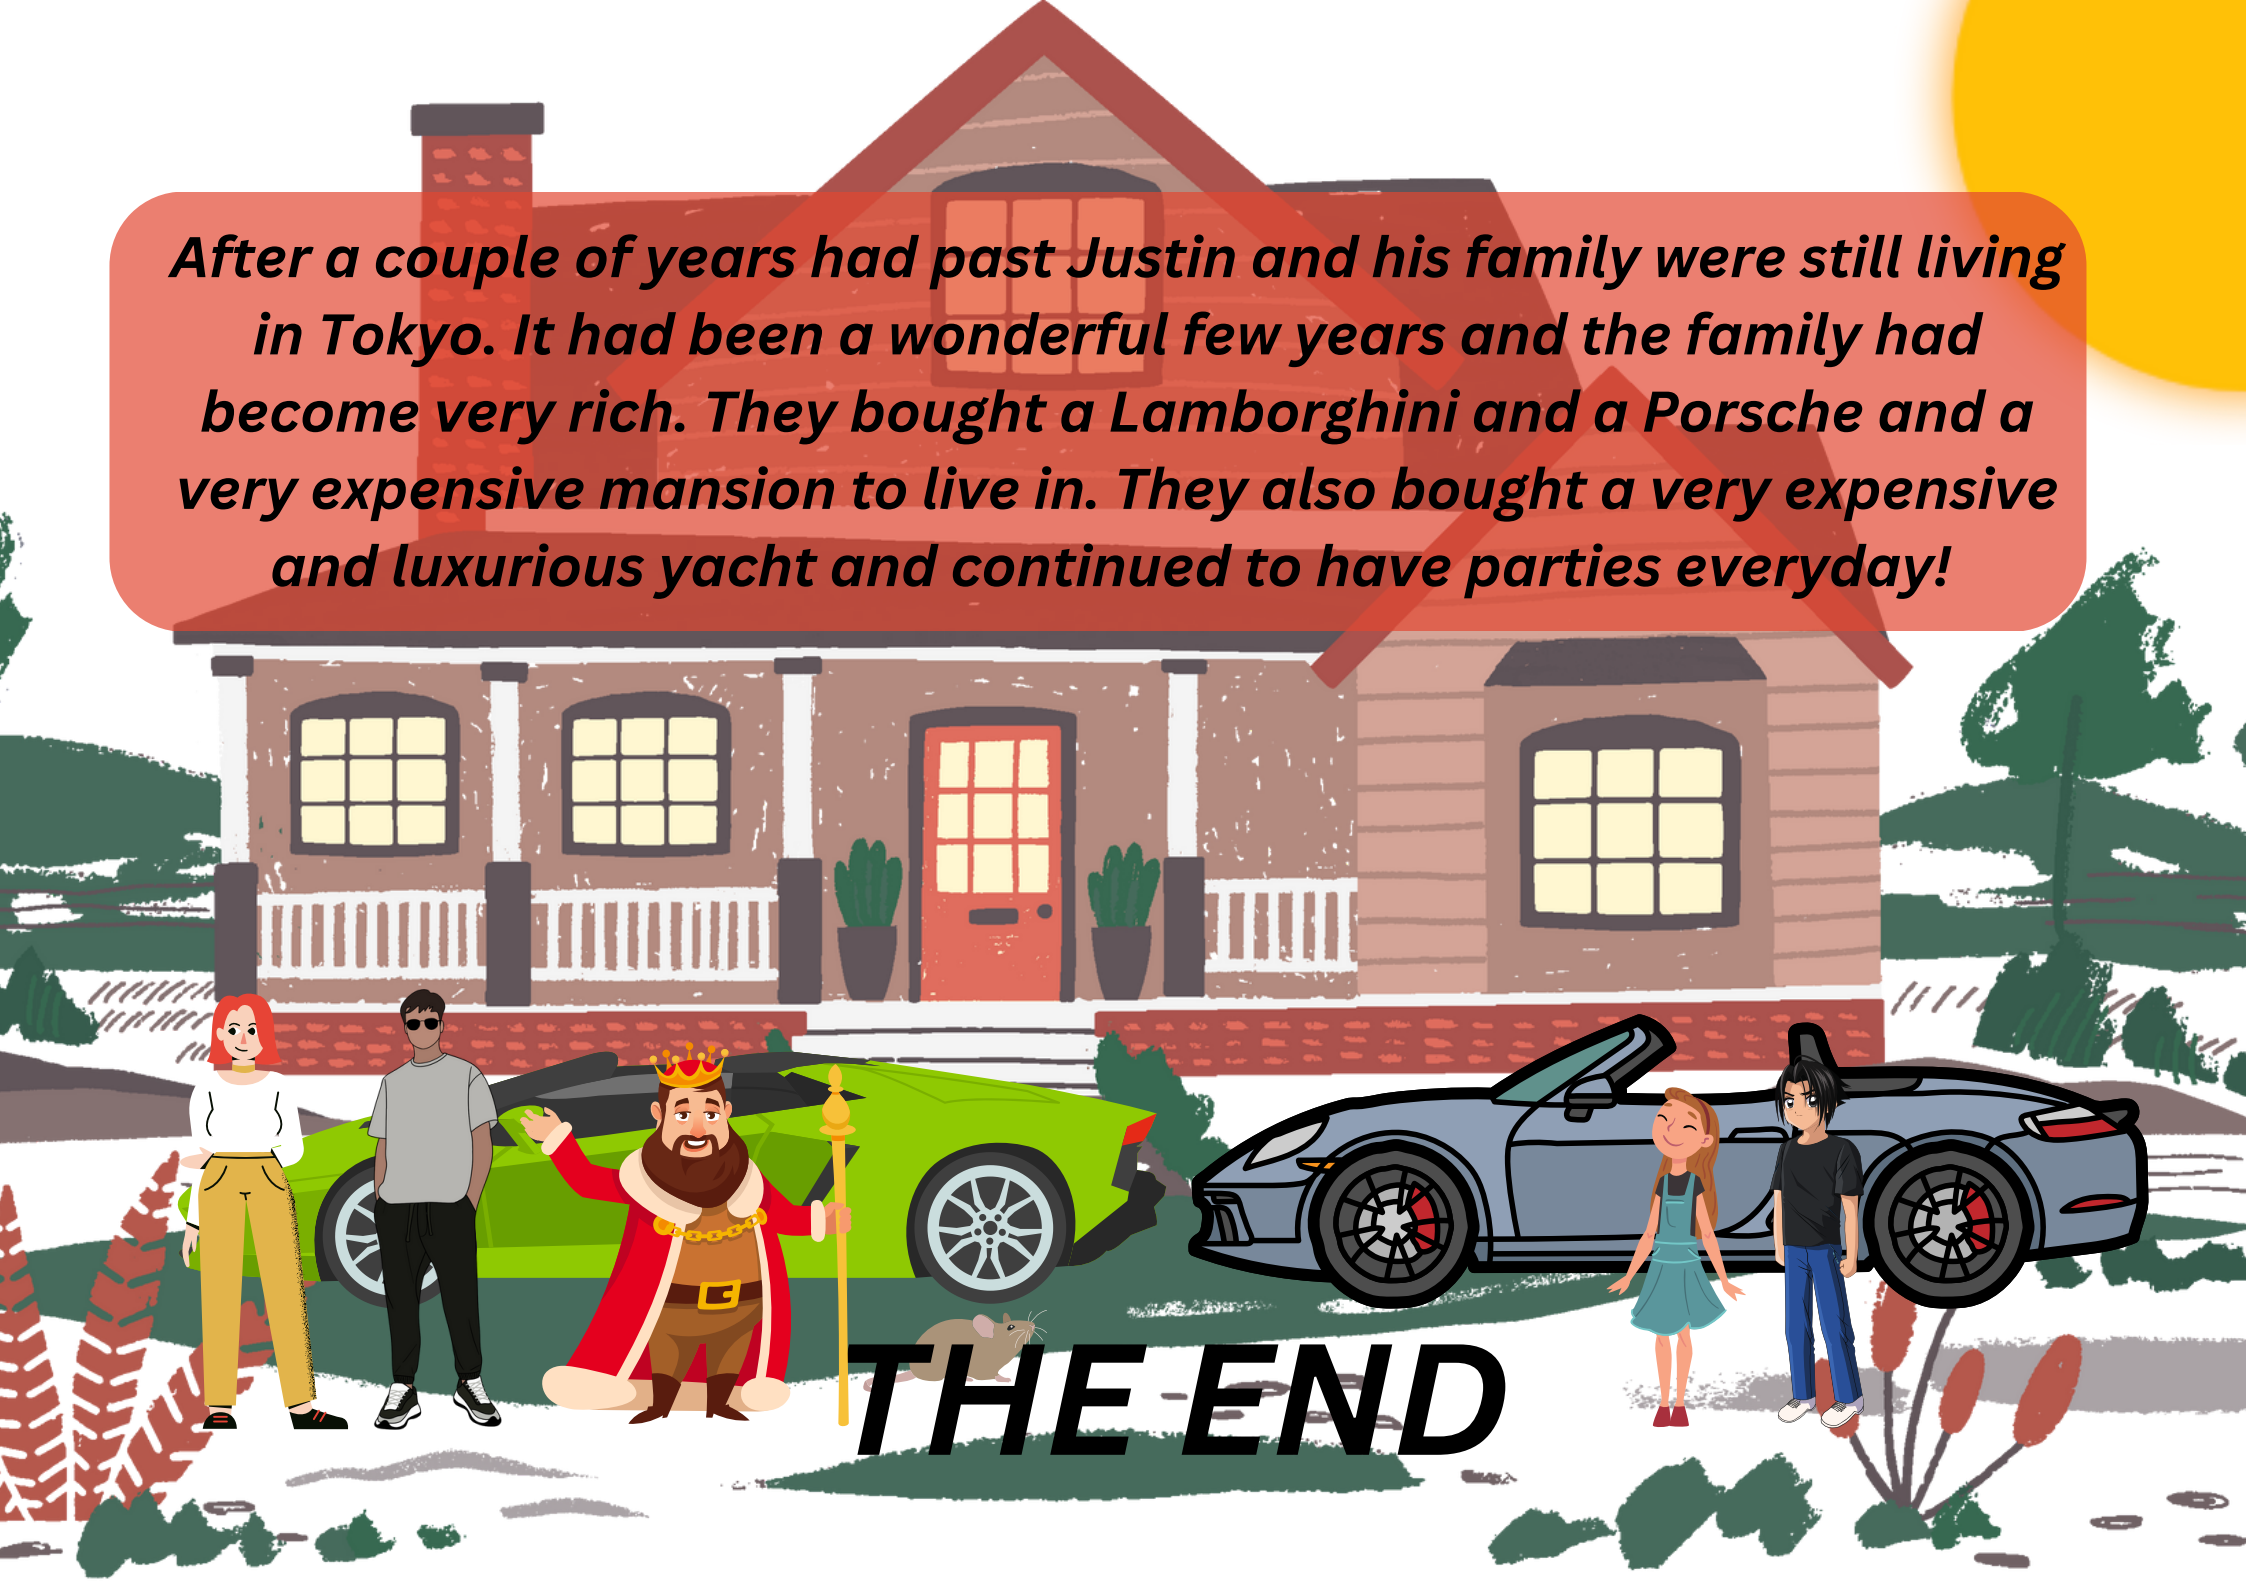

The family quickly jumped onto the yacht, feeling tired but also happy. "LET'S HAVE A PARTY" Justin's mum said. "We are so lucky to have been able to get back to the yacht". They all agreed and celebrated together.

After the party they all went to sleep. However, when they woke they were again in a different place! Justin woke them all up saying “guys we are in Tokyo”. They docked the yacht in the harbour and went on another adventure!

After a couple of years had past Justin and his family were still living in Tokyo. It had been a wonderful few years and the family had become very rich. They bought a Lamborghini and a Porsche and a very expensive mansion to live in. They also bought a very expensive and luxurious yacht and continued to have parties everyday!
