Mommy always tells me I am the
one who drives my
life

Daddy always tells me that I can be who I want
to be.

I can be a amazing
astronaut, get close to the sun that is super hot!

And I can travel the farthest space, where
the pretty stars and all the planets.

I can an awesome teacher
and help others achieve their goals

To inspire students to be the best would be lifelong and endearing quest.

I can be a lover of painting. Capturing scenes in a paper is so much fun.

Mixing paints and staining canvasses would give so much joy to the many.

I can be a respected farmer, I have power to stop world's hunger.

Plowing the soil would be rewarding, Making sure the seedlings are growing and reap a wonderful harvest

To be mighty police officer is great keeping people
together.

Keeping peace and order is my job. Public places is my station hub.

A vibrant, stylized illustration of diverse children in various professions and hobbies, arranged in a circle around the central text. The children are depicted in a flat, colorful style with large heads and small bodies. They are wearing various hats, uniforms, and holding tools or objects related to their interests. The background is a solid blue color. The text is written in a bold, dark blue, sans-serif font.

DO YOU
WANT TO BE ?
